GUAM, KEY TO PHILIPPINES, AT MERCY OF JAPSCircled by Islands

BULLETIN.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
TOKIO, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Viscount Kato and Viscount Shibusawa will probably leave soon for America in response to invitations to repay the calls of Frank Vanderlip and other prominent Americans, and to present the Japanese side of present controversies.

BY CHARLES DAILEY.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
AGANA, Island of Guam, Sept. 30.—Naval opinion is divided as to the importance of Guam to the United States as the result of the awards of the peace treaty, by which all the islands north of the equator which formerly belonged to Germany are awarded to Japan.

Australia is loud in her protests against this award, while in the United States strong objection was made, but it was not sufficient to influence the American delegates to Versailles, who took such a rosate view of the chances of the league of nations that they did not see any peril to American possessions in the Pacific through the handing to Japan of islands all around Guam.

The consensus among naval officers who have studied the situation is that Guam is of more importance to the United States than ever before, though further development of the base is made necessary and probably will be the subject of recommendations to the next session of congress.

Nearer to Japan.

The island of Guam lies 3,337 miles west of Honolulu, 7,988 miles from the Panama canal, and is 1,506 miles east of Manila. It is nearer to Japan than to the Philippines, being 1,333 miles from Yokohama and 1,440 miles from Nagasaki. Thus a fleet starting from a Japanese port could arrive at Guam twelve hours ahead of one starting from Manila. But this is only a minor point.

When, as a result of the Spanish war, an opportunity came to acquire the Marianas from Spain, it was deemed sufficient for our purposes in protecting the Philippines to buy only Guam, as a base between the Philippines and Honolulu. The remaining islands of the group were bought by Germany, which made no attempt to colonize the three inhabited islands. Now that they have been acquired it is certain that they will be colonized heavily by the Japanese and that the Chamorroans will be left to shift for themselves. Guam can offer them no asylum, since it cannot support its own population from home grown crops.

Concern Over Yap.

The inhabited islands of the Marianas awarded to Japan as her reward for participation in the world war are Rota, 49 miles from Guam; Tinian, 110 miles, and Saipan, 121 miles, all to the north and in the direction of Japan. Rota is within gun range of vessels from the America Pacific coast ports bound for Guam, but it lacks a harbor and probably could not be fortified.

Of much more concern as a menace to American trade routes is the island of Yap, of which more has been heard than of any other of the islands that become Japanese. Yap is the chief island of the Peleus and lies 453 miles southwest of Guam and within striking distance of the route to Manila by way of the San Bernardino straits, a course that naturally would be chosen in the event of hostilities, because Japan, with her bases at Yokohama and Nagasaki, controls the approach to Manila from the north and also holds Formosa.

Has Good Harbor.
Yap has a good harbor, and while Japan has said she has no intention of fortifying it this remains to be seen, just as the return of "Shantung" to China is a mere matter of promise. Possessing, as it does, ground suitable for an aviation field, it could be made the base of reconnoissance squadrons. EDISON WORKING
ON INSTRUMENT
TO TALK TO DEADBelieves in Personality in Hereafter.

New York, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Thomas A. Edison is now at work on a delicate apparatus which he has designed to effect indisputable communication between those whom death has removed from this earth and those who yet live.

It is Mr. Edison's hope to complete the instrument within a few months, and he himself realizes what a tremendous sensation it would create should it prove to be successful.

No Hint of Secret Disclosed.

Announcement of Mr. Edison's experiment is made by B. C. Forbes in an article in the American Magazine for October, in which he quotes the inventor at length respecting the apparatus. Mr. Edison, however, does not disclose anything of the character or physical aspect of his new device.

"I am proceeding," Mr. Edison says in the article, "on the theory that, in the very nature of things, the degree of material or physical power possessed by those in the next life must be extremely slight, and that, therefore, any instrument designed to communicate with us must be superdelicate—as fine and responsive as human ingenuity can make it."

Survival of Personality.

"For my part, I am inclined to believe that our personality hereafter will be able to affect matter. If this reasoning be correct, then, if we can evolve an instrument so delicate as to be affected or moved or manipulated—whichever term you want to use—by our personality as it survives in the next life, such an instrument, when made available, ought to record something."

Mr. Edison, commenting upon the mass of material being written these days about spiritualism, says it is "a lot of unscientific nonsense."

WANTS ROUTE OF
TREES, SAGAMORE
HILL TO CHICAGO

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—In a telegram today to Col. R. R. McCormick, who is in charge of the dedication on Saturday of the Roosevelt highway between Wheaton and Chicago, the American Forestry association urges that a nation-wide movement be started at the dedication to make the highway a "Roosevelt road of remembrance" by the planting of memorial trees along the route from Sagamore Hill to Chicago.

The telegram to Col. McCormick, who is a member of the American Forestry association, was sent by Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the association.

It says that Armistice day, Nov. 11, will be one of the greatest memorial tree planting days the country has seen, and hopes that Illinois will take the lead in such tree planting in honor of Col. Roosevelt, which thousands of citizens can have a part in erecting.

The road of remembrance idea has been adopted in Great Britain and Australia, and in this country by such organizations as the American Legion and the Service Star Legion.

The prince of Wales dedicated a fifteen mile road of remembrance while in Australia.

Murderer and Mother of Twins Gets Reprieve

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 30.—Mrs. Marie Anne Houde Gagnon, mother of twins born two months ago in prison, who was sentenced to be executed tomorrow at Quebec, will serve a life sentence instead as the result of a decision by the cabinet council. Physicians said the execution of Mrs. Gagnon would jeopardize the life of her babies. Mrs. Gagnon was convicted of murdering her stepdaughter under conditions of extreme cruelty.

Register Tomorrow
Men and Women

Every voter must register tomorrow to be eligible to vote at the presidential election in November.

Under the law the old polling lists have been destroyed.

The registration booths will be open all day Saturday from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. Be sure and get your name on the new polling lists tomorrow, as there will be only one more chance, on Oct. 12, to register, and the rush of the last day may lose you the right to vote at the national election Nov. 2.

[Copyright, 1920.]

BERLIN, Sept. 30.—A large quantity of jewelry has made its appearance in Berlin lately, which is said to have belonged to the murdered Russian imperial family—and evidently did, for pieces still show the Romanoff crest.

Illustrious traders have been disposing of these pieces, which consist of numerous pearls, single pearls, and pearls and earrings, at comparatively low prices.

"The illustrious traders ask 150,000 to 200,000 marks for each string of pearls," one jeweler said. "These pearls are all pea size, the strings not tapering at the ends, but their colors are not quite faultless. Evidently they served as adornments for imperial state costumes. Some pearl rings, set with diamonds, are also for sale. They are extremely valuable, the pearls being large and faultless."

ELECT HARDING AND COOLIDGE, PLEA SENT OUT BY T. R.'S WIDOW

New York, Sept. 30.—Mrs. Edith Roosevelt, widow of former President Theodore Roosevelt, tonight appealed to America to elect Harding and Coolidge. In a statement dated at Sagamore Hill and given out by the Republican national committee Mrs. Roosevelt said:

"The country's vital need is the election of the Republican candidates, Warren G. Harding and Calvin Coolidge. Only will the full measure of Americanism in the next administration be attained, if the people shall declare for the party which holds true nationalism as its ideal. It is not necessary to forget our duty to our neighbor in doing our duty at home."

"The time appeals most strongly to the manhood and the womanhood of America—to woman more than ever before, because to her has come the perfected opportunity to make her opinion weighty in behalf of the nation."

This year, as never before, with world conditions as they are, steadiness and stanchness of American purpose are obligatory if we would first bring back our country to its stable place, and then by strong endeavor do all that can be done for peace and the general welfare in all lands."

HOYNE BRINGS
NEW EVIDENCE
OF SOX FRAUDBack Today to Push
Baseball Inquiry.

State's Attorney Macloy Hoyne will arrive from New York this morning with evidence which he believes sufficient to warrant criminal prosecution of the White Sox players involved in the 1919 world's series scandal.

Before leaving New York yesterday Mr. Hoyne announced two men there had furnished him with evidence which offers ground for further indictments of the "fixers" of the series.

Mr. Hoyne said the evidence was provided by men who are neither baseball men nor gamblers. It did not come from either Abe Attel nor Arnold Rothstein, already mentioned in the case, he announced.

Confirms Confessions.

The new information tallies with that contained in the confessions of Cicotte, Jackson, and Williams. Mr. Hoyne will place the information before the grand jury as soon as he reaches Chicago. The two men are willing to testify, he said.

Mr. Hoyne declared he had no information whatever that would seem to substantiate the report of an attempted "fixing" of the forthcoming world's series.

Despite Hoyne's doubts of the legality of the indictments already returned, Chief Justice McDonald of the Criminal court yesterday ordered the baseball grand jury to continue its investigation. Alfred Austrian, attorney for the White Sox management, also cited legal authorities as proof that the indictments would stand.

Attel Says Gamblers Got $250,000.

Abe Attel, the prize fighter, repeatedly named before the grand jury as one of the fixers, yesterday made a new denial of any connection with the plot. A gambler's syndicate, he said, made $250,000 out of the deal, but he claimed he was in no way connected with it.

"I never handed any money to the White Sox players," Attel said. "I never acted as a fixer. There was some master mind which evolved and operated the whole scheme. Of course, he was assisted by others. His name and their names I know, and later I shall give the names and particulars. To the best of my knowledge there were ten gamblers in the syndicate, which made at least $500,000."

Weaver and McMullin May Talk.

"Buck" Weaver, Sox third baseman, and Fred McMullin, Sox utility man, named in previous confessions, are reported to be ready to tell their stories to the Cook county inquirers.

August (Garry) Herrmann, owner of the Cincinnati Reds and former chairman of the national baseball commission, is expected to be a witness here this afternoon.

Clyde Elliott of the Greater Stars Production company, who is said to have accompanied Kid Gleason to St. Louis to make the investigation for Comiskey, which Ban Johnson said was a fiasco, also has been called.

Dr. Raymond B. Prettyman, said to have attended some of the Sox players, is another on the list.

Grand Jury to Continue.

Judge McDonald announced he would continue the September grand jury as a special inquisitorial body assigned to give its exclusive attention to the baseball scandal after its ordinary term expires today. He said indictments and prosecutions could be had on the evidence presented already.

That there is much work ahead of the grand jury, and that it has many important leads to follow, was surmised from Judge McDonald's announcement.

None Given Immunity.

"None of those who have confessed have been granted immunity," Judge McDonald said. "All specifically waived it. There need be no doubt about the prosecution of the guilty players and their co-conspirators. It would, of course, be natural for the prosecution to consider such as any witness may give the state, but that does not mean that they will escape indictment."

Assistant State's Attorney Replego urged an act of congress governing interstate baseball and making it a felony for a player in such a game to accept a bribe or gratuity.

Gandil Denies All.

Chick Gandil, Sox first baseman, named by Eddie Cicotte, Joe Jackson, and "Lefty" Williams as a leader in the "fixing" of the series, today denied all charges.

Fan at Joliet
Stabs Herzog
of Cubs' Team

Charles Herzog, Cub infielder against whom charges of crookedness in baseball were made by "Rube" Benton before the Cook county grand jury, was stabbed three times yesterday at Joliet just after the Cubs had finished playing an exhibition game there. He was not badly injured.

After the game Herzog left the stadium and went to a hotel where he had a room. A crowd was gathered about the gate. One man climbed on the running board of the car, struck his head inside, and said: "You're one of those crooked Chicago ball players. When are you going to confess?"

Trounces One Opponent.

Herzog leaped out of the car, knocked the man down and grappled with him in the dirt, both rolling into a ditch. The report was that Herzog gave the fellow a thorough beating, but one of the man's friends pulled a knife and went into the fight. He slashed Herzog first across the palm of his left hand as "Duke" threw up his hand to ward off the blow. Another slash cut a slight gash across his knuckles, and a third cut through the stocking into the calf of his leg.

By this time Herzog had regained his feet, leaving his first assailant in the ditch. The player started after the man with the knife, but the latter ran into the crowd and made his escape.

No arrests were made, but the names of the men in the fight are known to the Cub officials, who made a hasty investigation.

Couldn't Stand "Crook."

At the Hotel Sherman Herzog was found last night, not much damaged, but with his left hand bandaged. "I'm sorry it occurred," he said. "I couldn't resist punching that fellow when he called me a crook. I got a pretty bad cut across the front of my hand. I guess a slash a quarter of an inch deep, but the other two are little more than scratches."

Herzog's case is being investigated by the grand jury. He was accused by Benton of having made an offer of $800 last fall for "Rube" to throw a ball game. Benton testified here last week. President Heydler of the National league later stated. Benton's charges did not stand up in his investigation of the case.

During the game at Joliet there was considerable jeering from the crowd and many remarks about crooked ball players. Most of them were directed at Herzog because his name had been prominent in the opening days of the investigation by the grand jury here.

OGLESBY WILL FILE CONTEST
TO BAR SMALLWould Open Ballots
in 300 Precincts.

A fight to the finish in the courts to keep the name of Len Small off the ballot as the Republican nominee for governor of Illinois was decided yesterday at a conference of lawyers representing John G. Oglesby, the anti-Thompson candidate. It was announced that the first step—and probably the first two steps—in this legal battle will be taken today.

The County court of Cook county, presided over by Judge James T. Burns, will be first asked to prevent an official declaration that Small is the Republican nominee. Lawyers representing Oglesby will appear before him, setting forth specifically the frauds and irregularities that they claim have occurred in 300 precincts of Chicago. He will be asked to throw out the vote of these precincts.

If his decision is in favor of the contestants no further action will be necessary, as the other precincts of the state, in which no frauds or irregularities are charged, gave Oglesby a plurality of 5,430 votes.

Formal Contest Next Step.

If Judge Burns fails to act a formal contest will be filed in the Circuit court of Cook county. The petition will require the same frauds and irregularities complained of to Judge Burns. The court will be asked to take cognizance of them, open the ballots in the 300 precincts, and have them counted for the candidates for the Republican nomination for governor. Attorneys representing Oglesby are certain that a fair count will wipe out the plurality of 5,430 shown for Small by including the vote in disputed precincts.

Other steps to prevent certification of Small as the Republican nominee to the 102 county clerks of Illinois who print the official ballots were also decided upon at the conference. What these moves will be has not been revealed.

One Step at a Time.

"It's sufficient to take one step at a time," said Col. John V. Cline, chief of the lawyers for Oglesby. "We are going into the County court today. We hope to be able to convince it that frauds and irregularities which would change the result of the Republican primary election were committed in certain precincts in Chicago. After that move has been made it will be time to talk of others."

Another conference of the lawyers for Oglesby will be held today, at which the program of procedure will be more definitely outlined and the various legal papers prepared.

The decision upon court action followed the refusal of the board of election commissioners to heed the protests by Oglesby lawyers to include in the official count the vote of precincts in which fraud was apparent on the face of the records.

Clashes Mark Hearing.

At the hearing last night by the board of election commissioners August Luaders, president of the election board, and Col. Cline engaged in frequent clashes.

Frank D. Ayers, attorney for the Thompson forces, sat beside Luaders, whispering in his ear, and even growling so loud as to make his decisions for him. Time after time Col. Cline would make an objection.

"Overruled," Ayers would sneer, and Luaders would nod his head. When Cline renewed his protests Luaders, leaning over the table at which both were seated, shook his fist in Cline's face.

"I've heard enough from you. A little more and out you go."

"I'm merely making legal objections," replied Cline.

"I don't care. I've got the say, and I'm saying it. You can't do nothing. I'm taking note of your conduct. Well, you can't do nothing."

Dispute Over Poll Returns.

Finally Ayers, who continued to make rulings for Luaders, intimated that in the absence of any legal returns from the Ninety-third precinct of the Twenty-seventh ward the police returns, collected, compiled, and kept by the Thompson forces, be accepted as the legal returns. Luaders ordered them in.

Frank Rydzewski, member of the board, who had acted as a peacekeeper most of the time, objected.

"What are you doing? Trying to make a joke of this hearing, are you?" he asked Ayers. "Wait a minute" this to the secretary, who was placing the police returns in the official envelope—the board has rejected those. They're not worth any more than a piece of newspaper.

Leaders turned with a puzzled look to his fellow member, but Rydzewski was insistent and the police returns were rejected. In all other cases heard, however, the decision was to accept the vote of the precincts in spite of manifest irregularities, Ayers generally giving the eye for the decision.

Vote Republican Three to One.

That Republicans cast nearly three votes in Chicago to one for the Democrats at the Sept. 15 primary was revealed yesterday when the actual official figures on the vote canvass were made known by the election commissioners.

The official canvass fixed the vote of Chicago at 468,698. Of this vote 235,974 was Republican, while only 118,724 was Democratic. The Democratic vote was cast by 81,465 men and 35,259 women. The division of the Republican vote by sex was not announced.

Democratic Vote on Senator.

The official count of the Democratic vote established for the first time that Peter A. Waller of Kewanee had defeated Robert E. Burke for the Democratic nomination for United States senator.

Official figures for Chicago and Cicero are: Waller, 46,153; Burke, 46,119; Waller's plurality, 34. The women pulled Waller through in Chicago. He received 13,305 women's votes to 12,593 for Burke.

In the country towns the vote was: Burke, 1,605; Waller, 1,577; Burke's plurality, 28. These figures combined give for the county: Burke, 47,722; Waller, 47,410; Burke's plurality, 312. Unofficial results down state are: Waller, 49,223; Burke, 45,907; Waller's plurality, 4,316. Combined with the Cook county result the figures for the entire state are: Waller, 87,633; Burke, 83,615; Waller's plurality, 4,018.

Hoynes-Igoe Vote.

The official count established the plurality by which Michael L. Igoe defeated Michael Hoynes for the Democratic nomination for state's attorney at 11,993. The figures are: Chicago and Cicero—Hoynes, 32,059 men and 13,730 women, totaling 45,789; Igoe, 40,229 men and 16,391 women, totaling 56,620; Igoe's plurality, 10,831. Country towns: Hoynes, 1,906; Igoe, 968; Hoynes' plurality, 938. Total Cook county: Hoynes, 49,499; Igoe, 59,978; Igoe's plurality, 10,479.

The only other figures of interest on the Democratic side are those on the three candidates for congressman-at-large. These are: C. S. Schneider, 53,175; William Murphy, 48,131; William N. Baltz, 47,715. Murphy, an independent, defeated Baltz, a state candidate, in Chicago by 410, but Baltz is expected to be returned the winner by from 4,000 to 5,000 by the downstate official count.

Slashing American Prices Reopens European Trade Markets To U. S.

A Chicagoan, favorably known in Chamber of Commerce circles, plans an early return to Europe. He is open to present a select list of exporting, importing or manufacturing houses of the Central West, that desire purveys, or development of their European buying or selling opportunities.

Previous residence and travel in Europe gave exceptional advantages in extending business and social acquaintance.

A price cut in American commodities raises the purchasing power of European money in the same ratio. The exchange rate, thus offset, need no longer keep your goods out of Europe.

ADDRESS B M 299, TRIBUNE.

G. O. P. FACTIONS OF STATE UNITE FOR CAMPAIGN

'Old' and 'New' Committees Agree on Plan.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

The Illinois row over the Republican presidential electors was settled yesterday. "Old" and "new" state committees, working together in harmony on the surface, followed the urgent pleas of the Republican national committee and agreed to stand upon the list of twenty-nine candidates for electors named at the state convention.

The two committees likewise agreed upon the same set of three candidates for trustees of the University of Illinois. The nominations, made yesterday afternoon at the Republican hotel, have been certified to Springfield and there will be no further question as to the legality of the state's Republican electoral ticket, it is believed.

The three nominees for university trustees are: Mrs. Helen Matthews Grigsby of Pittsfield; Mrs. Laura B. Evans of Taylorville; Dr. William L. Noble of Evanston.

Management of the campaign is to be placed in the hands of an advisory committee of ten members. Committee members, one member to be named by each of the campaign, regularly chosen nominees for state offices, after the report of the state canvassing board shall have been made.

Col. Frank L. Smith, as chairman of the "old" and the "new" state committees, by joint resolution of the two bodies, is directed to name the executive heads of the state woman's organization, speakers, judiciary and finance committees.

In the event the state canvassing board returns Len Small as nominee for governor, it is understood that Col. W. H. Miller of Kankakee will be his representative in the advisory body. Harry I. Green of Urbana is to represent William B. McKinley, nominee for senator. It is now believed that Col. Smith will remain as chairman of the state committee and will be in executive charge of the state and national campaign.

A majority of the "old" committee caucused in the morning. The caucus decision was to have a campaign committee presided over by both, agreed to, by Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman as its chairman.

In the afternoon, after the intervention of the national committee, both committees met simultaneously, but in separate session in the same room, each having its own secretary, and with Chairman Smith presiding over both. A committee of four, Len Small and Garret Kinney of the "new" committee and Walter A. Rosenfield and Adam C. Cliffe of the "old," was named to arrange the procedure.

After a two hour session this committee reported the plan agreed to as indicated above and the field was opened for the nomination of trustees. Six candidates for trustees were placed in nomination: Mrs. Evans, Marie J. Trees of Chicago, and Harvey J. Scoop of Sidell, as the recommendations of the alumni association of the university; Mrs. Grigsby, Roy R. Brown of Rockford, and Dr. Noble, the latter the candidate of the city hall forces.

The two women were nominated by acclamation and on a roll call of the two committees Dr. Noble won out. All hands claimed to be satisfied if not content with the ultimate result.

The Wedding Invitation

Convention dictates that there shall be but little latitude in the form and wording of Wedding Invitations or Announcements. It is well that this is so—but what a difference there is in Wedding Stationery!

Lack of quality in the paper, lack of skill in engraving, and lack of care in printing produce results which are disappointing and quickly discerned by the recipient.

Spaulding & Co. by consistently maintaining their standards—by never changing their method of production to compete for cheapness—have made their imprint on the envelope the symbol of perfection.

The Department of Stationery will appreciate the early placing of Wedding orders.

1—Gen. Volodan of the Ukrainian army, operating with Wrangel, has captured Nizhny, an important Red base on the Dnieper.

2—Wrangel now holds the entire east bank of the Dnieper to above Alexandrovsk, even, it seems, the bridgehead of Kozlovka, where there has been bitter fighting. He has cleared Laurids of Reds except in the corner north of Chermopovka.

NATIONAL CAMPAIGN —IN BRIEF—

MARION O.—Former President Taft and Herbert Hoover will take the stump for Senator Harding about Oct. 15. The G. O. P. leader denies friction with Senators Johnson and Borah.

WICHITA, Kans.—Gov. Cox questioned continually by legislative Kansans on the wet, Mexican, Russian, league and other questions.

celebrated in every county of the United States, according to the birthday of Col. Theodore Roosevelt. Day to be Senator Harry S. New.

Raymond Robins issued a statement through Republican national headquarters that said:

"Intelligent Progressives are interested to Moore. In what other Progressives are doing in this campaign will be more inclined to follow Senator Hiram Johnson and Myer Lissner of California, Dixon and Shelley of Montana, Howell and Corrick of Nebraska, Allen and White of Kansas, McCormick and Knight of Illinois, Beveridge and Foster of Indiana, Garfield, Garford, and Brown of Ohio, Van Valkenburg, Moore, and Lewis of Pennsylvania, Davenport, Hooker and Wilkerson of New York, and hundreds of other leading Progressives who kept faith with Theodore Roosevelt while he lived and now support Senator Harding rather than those who abandoned Roosevelt's leadership for the man who kept us out of war and who was too proud to fight."

"I am hearing more and more of a noticeable movement among women, and particularly among those who have been in the army, to support Senator Harding rather than those who abandoned Roosevelt's leadership for the man who kept us out of war and who was too proud to fight."

Hitchcock the churches, away from Cox, said United States Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock upon his arrival at Democratic national headquarters. "Everybody seems to agree that the league of nations is a growing issue. Clergymen are beginning to preach on the subject and people are beginning somewhat to be wrought up over Harding's antagonistic attitude, and particularly over some of the notorious alien support he is receiving."

DELEGATES MARK TIME AS WARSAW FRAMES ANSWER

Reds' Frontier Proposal May Block Peace.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]
RIGA, Sept. 30.—A lull has struck the peace negotiations here between the delegates of Poland and soviet Russia while Warsaw is deliberating over the Polish reply to the soviet proposals communicated by M. Dombalski to the Polish foreign minister, Prince Sapieha.

Meanwhile the Trotsky regime at Moscow is reported to be doing everything possible to rally the Red armies while Polish military leaders are said to be calculating upon improvement of strategic positions and paving the way for munitions from France.

Expect Reply Today.

It is the general belief of the Polish delegation, unofficially expressed, that the boundary proposal contained in the Red ultimatum will not be found acceptable to Warsaw. A reply is expected Friday.

It has become more and more apparent that the Riga delegations are mere pawns in the peace negotiations and that if the parties prove to be sincere, the resultant peace will be of Warsaw-Moscow manufacture.

While the Polish delegates here express disappointment over the Red proposals as a concrete peace offer and find various points to which they take exception, they seem to accept the principle involved.

Three Jointed Leak.

All Riga is laughing today over attempts to keep secret the draft of the proposed Red treaty. At yesterday's session the delegates agreed to joint publication of the draft today. However, before the meeting the Reds had passed the treaty along to American and English newspapersmen, and yesterday afternoon the Poles gave it to the Polish correspondents.

As a result the draft was given world publicity this morning, and at today's session the delegates solemnly resolved to keep the treaty secret and not publish it at all.

Following exchange of ratifications of the Russo-Latvian peace a bolshevik embassy with a personnel of fifty persons headed by M. Hanitzky was opened here today.

Latvian refugees who fled the Germans in 1917 are now returning to their country from soviet Russia in great numbers.

Poles Take Red Stronghold.

WARSAW, Sept. 29.—[By The Associated Press.]—Polish forces captured Lida, an important town forty-five miles south of Vilna, and Pinsk, a fortified city ninety miles east of Brest-Litovsk, on Tuesday, according to an official statement issued here.

LITHUANIA ACCEPTS.

PARIS, Sept. 30.—Lithuania has accepted the invitation of Poland to send delegates immediately to Suwalki, as the Polish-Lithuanian peace conference probably will begin tomorrow or Saturday, the French foreign office was informed today.

On the door in the background is seen the symbol of bolshevism chalked there by the editor of the factory newspaper, which is printed on a typewriter and mimeographed. The insignia is a sickle and a hammer with a ring of wheat stalks. The motto says: "If you don't work you can't eat."

GENERAL STRIKE

Enters New Regime.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
TURIN, Sept. 30.—A general strike is feared in Genoa as the result of police demands that forty-four leaders of the seamen's federation surrender for their part in the seizure of ships during the metal workers' strike. Malatesta, the anarchist leader, arrived in Genoa this afternoon and is urging an immediate strike unless the government releases three leaders already taken into custody.

Several disturbances of minor character already have occurred and it is feared grave disorders may result if the strike is called.

Beach New Agreement.
Workers in the Fiat, Gnome-Rhone, and other automobile plants, have reached a private agreement with their employers calling for immediate evacuation of the factories; the workers to have three days' vacation, returning to work next Monday.

This is how you'd be greeted if you wanted to take a look around the plant of one of the large steel plants in Milan. The Reds in control of the plant don't seem to want any strangers watching them work. When you ring their front door button (at the right) they let you look into the nozzle of a few six shooting playthings, not to mention a stiletto or bayonet to bargain. The idea seems to be to tell whether you are friend or foe. Reports from Milan say the argument is more convincing than parliamentism.

NAPLES, Sept. 28.—Former Premier Nitti in a recent statement went over some of the problems perplexing Europe and America.

"I am a sincere friend of America," I said, "but I cannot truthfully say I believe the actions of its leaders have been useful to the world."

"No man had more humanitarian ideas than President Wilson. But he was not sufficiently acquainted with Europe, and thus the treaties concluded have no great moral worth. They contain the germs of deep hatred and perhaps new wars."

RUSSIA FACING
FAMINE, BOARD
INFORMS LENIN

Says Winter Will Be the Worst Since 1914.

BY HENRY WALES.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
PARIS, Sept. 30.—The French secret service has obtained a confidential report of the soviet government's supreme agricultural control commission to the soviet government, stating that Russian cities are facing famine next winter, and declaring conditions to be infinitely more critical than at any time since 1914.

A marked dearth of food supplies is noted even in the central Russia Volga region, which heretofore has been the granary of the Muscovite empire.

The sole hope of Russia lies in the Siberian and Caucasus crops, but limited transportation facilities and the crippled condition of rail lines preclude disaster.

Peasants Near Rebellion.
Peasants everywhere in Russia are hostile to the city population and the soviet officials, refusing to accept worthless paper in payment, and fearing confiscation by the government of their crops many have raised just enough for their own uses.

Lithov's commercial mission to London was of negligible importance. A few consignments of potatoes were all that arrived and these were in bad condition. Russian trade relations with Italy gave a small amount of textiles but these were useless as the factories were paralyzed.

Coal Supply Cut Off.
The Donetz coal basin, the sole source of fuel, now is in the power of Gen. Wrangel. Even before this the Donetz region alone consumed nearly all the coal mined there.

The report concludes with a gloomy forecast that Petrograd, Moscow, and practically all of European Russia faces starvation and that the large cities everywhere in the empire soon will be famine stricken.

MAKHNO TAKES RED BASE

BY LARRY RUE.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
SEBASTOPOL, Sept. 30.—The capture of Nikolai on the right bank of the Dnieper by Gen. Volodan of Gen. Makhno's army is the first result of the military cooperation between Wrangel's and Makhno's troops.

Gen. Volodan, who is a former commander of one of the czar's pet regiments and a wearer of the highest military decorations of the old Russian army, visited the camp of Gen. Piskunov, the commander of Wrangel's first corps on the Dnieper front, asking money and materials of war.

Did More than "Worry."
Gen. Piskunov gave him money and all the munitions he could spare, and told Gen. Volodan to harass the Red communications around Nikolai.

Gen. Volodan instead of merely worrying the Reds there, captured the city, which was of great strategic importance to Gen. Wrangel, as the Reds persistently attempted to cross the Dnieper from there.

To Clear Dnieper of Reds.
Other units of Gen. Makhno's troops have been active to the north of Gen. Wrangel's lines along the Dnieper. In the Ukraine and in other territory along the river uprisings are expected soon which have been designed to end menace of a bolshevist offensive on the Dnieper front.

POLES TO AID WRANGEL?
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
PARIS, Sept. 30.—A wireless dispatch from Moscow states that the soviet government has learned that Prince Sapieha, Polish foreign minister, has promised to aid Gen. Wrangel with war munitions as soon as a Russo-Polish peace has been concluded.

A photograph of part of the 20,000 employees of the Fiat works. The snapshot was made from the roof of the big hall. The men were gathered to show sympathy for the families of two Red guards who were killed by their employer, Francesco Benedetti, because they resisted his factory after the communist employees had seized it. Benedetti is under arrest charged with murder.

U.S. IMPORTS OF FOOD EXCEED
EXPORTS' VALUE

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—Foodstuffs worth $210,000,000 were imported in August, the department of commerce said today. This compared with imports of $24,000,000 in August, 1919. Exports of foodstuffs for the month aggregated $154,000,000, as against $208,000,000 the same month a year ago.

For the first eight months of the year foodstuffs imported were valued at $1,658,000,000, as against $700,000,000 during the corresponding period last year, and exports were valued at $1,822,000,000, compared with $1,832,000,000 for the first eight months of last year.

Imports of crude materials for use in manufacturing continued to increase last month, aggregating $140,000,000, compared with $131,000,000 during August, 1919. The total for the eight months was $1,412,000,000, as against $957,000,000 for the same period of the year before.

Exports of crude materials in August were valued at $140,000,000, an increase of $10,000,000 as compared with August, 1919.

RUSSIA DIVIDES
LABOR IN FRANCE

PARIS, Sept. 30.—Choice between economic or social revolution is the issue at the congress of the labor federation, in session at Orleans. Debate centers on responsibility for the May day strike forced by minority elements to ally French labor with the third international.

Moderate leaders want to keep the unions out of such an alliance and advocate nationalization of mines. The day's session adjourned amid shouts of "to Moscow, to Moscow" from the extremists.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—(United News.)—The republic of San Marino has submitted a request for admission to the league of nations. So have the principality of Monaco and the Kingdom of Lichtenstein. Iceland, Latvia, Estonia, Luxembourg, Georgia, and Costa Rica are among the prospective new members, although they have not made formal application for admission.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—Reports that a secret agreement has been concluded between Albania, the Bulgarian revolutionary committee, and Italian representatives for the erection of an independent Macedonian state out of territory now held by Yugoslavia, were received here today in official circles.

The dispatches said Albania was planning a military demonstration on the Albanian-Yugo-Slav border in order to divert Serbian troops from Croatia and Slovenia and that Italy was expected to take advantage of the diversion to press for settlement of the Adriatic question.

Burberrys

We've got the greatest line of this great English overcoat we have ever had.

We'd like to tell you how much of a stock we have laid in, but it wouldn't do to tip it off publicly.

Our clientele gives us a chance to handle a coat like this which all don't have.

It's such garments as these that make men admit that England still has it on us in some lines.

The texture of the Burberry is indescribable and incomparable. They simply don't wear out, or tire out. You can use and enjoy one year after year. They'd do for heirlooms.

Some of the color effects we have this Fall are the richest and most effective we have ever seen in cloth. They give that lively warmth of appearance most men like. Others are quieter.

In style, of course, they are unmatched.

Most of them are heavies; some mediums among them.

One of the best things about them is that the way we have been able to buy, the prices run about even with domestics.

Burberrys, they tell us, are none too plentiful in general. So you had better count on us for yours. There are plenty here, but some one else may prefer the one you want, so you'd better beat him to it.

TOKIO, Sept. 30.—Baron Shimpō Goto, former cabinet member, who is regarded as the probable next premier, is strongly deprecating any hysterical demonstration against America and also he is refusing to grasp the present opportunity to lead an attack on the government over the American situation.

He says the present wave of anti-Japanese feeling in America is merely a phase of the presidential campaign and is one of the general questions over which the wisest statesmen in both countries must deliberate in order to secure a fundamental solution.

Land owning by the Japanese in California is not the real issue. The real issue is the matter of discrimination and the refusal on the part of the Americans to accept racial equality.

The Japanese must remain cool now, he urges, and refuse to permit "vote chasing politicians" to stampede them. Later statesmen in Japan and America will lay their cards on the table and frankly discuss fundamentals.

The solution of the question, Baron Goto says, is one which will affect America in the future unless the matter is settled honorably for each side and, therefore, the Japanese must appeal to America's honor and justice to act honorably and justly. Meanwhile the Japanese must remember the Japanese proverb that "he who runs with crazy men becomes crazy himself."

the conspiracy, made excited denial from a hospital at Lufkin, Tex., where he was operated on Monday for appendicitis.

"It's a lie," he said. "Those fellows are trying to fasten the thing on me when I don't know a thing about it. I never 'threw' a game in my life."

"If 'Lefty' Williams says I was the 'go between' I shall give him a little trouble on my own hook and make him prove his charge. As soon as I can leave the hospital I am going straight to Chicago and face those fellows and make them admit they have lied. It won't be necessary to send an officer for me."

May Call Players' Wives.

Wives of a number of baseball players may be called as the result of a report said to emanate from the "square" players still on the Sox team. This report credits "Happy" Felsch with having placed $5,000, accepted as a bribe from the gamblers, as a bet at 2 to 1 on Cincinnati in the second game of the series, thus accumulating $18,000.

It is claimed he wired his wife in Milwaukee to come to Chicago for the first game here, and that when she met him at the Warner hotel his greeting was to toss the $18,000 on the table.

There are various accounts of what followed. The players say the couple had a disagreement over the affair, but later made up and Mrs. Felsch deposited the money in a south side savings bank.

The money is said to have been withdrawn last Monday. Mrs. Felsch is expected to be asked by the grand jury what she knows of the transaction.

Some 1920 Games "Fixed"?

In the confessions of White Sox players, only the part referring to the world's series was made public, but other evidence has been gathered that indicates occasional games during the 1920 season were "framed" with gamblers. Last night a prominent Chicago man who is quite familiar with things happening in the gambling world related the following incident: "The White Sox started off last spring by winning six straight games before they went to Cleveland for their first game in that city. Naturally the Sox were favorites in the betting, but the tip was out that morning that Cleveland was the 'good thing.' It came from Kansas City, and I know there were several thousand dollars of Kansas City money spread around in other cities. There was so much of it that the odds went to 6 to 5, with Cleveland the favorite. Cleveland won the game."

How Game Was Lost.

THE TRIBUNE files show the game was a close fight, with Red Faber pitching for Chicago and in good form in the eighth inning the Sox led, 2 to 1. The following paragraph is from Irving Vaughan's account sent to THE TRIBUNE:

"Faber fanned two of three batters in the seventh and had two down in the eighth when Gardner walloped a fly over Jackson's dome. Risberg relayed the ball back to third, but the throw was so wide neither Weaver nor Faber could capture the pill, so Gardner scored. Risberg never should have made the peg, as there was no chance to beat the runner to the far bag."

That run tied the score and Cleveland won in the ninth.

Chicago's First War Nurse Will Be Buried Tomorrow

The body will reach Chicago today and will lie in state at the home of the nurse's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connor, 2442 West Chicago avenue, until time for the funeral.

Burial will be in Mount Carmel cemetery.

BULLETIN.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination league show that after a brighter day Lord Mayor MacSwiney suffered from sudden weakness at 8 o'clock tonight, after which he slept.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]
LONDON, Sept. 30.—Gen. Macreaddy, commander in chief of British troops in Ireland, has been summoned to London by the government to discuss the lawless condition of Ireland and the régime of reprisals. He is expected to arrive tonight.

Due to government orders, it is stated semi-officially, Gen. Macreaddy already has taken steps, as far as troops under his command are concerned, to insure that reprisals cease.

Plea for R. I. C. Morale.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, in presenting police medals at the Phoenix Park Royal Irish Constabulary depot this afternoon, said:

"You have endured intolerable provocation. One hundred and ten of your comrades have been brutally murdered; 170 have been wounded, and 568 courthouses and barracks have been destroyed by fire in the last two years. "Your duty and mine is to arrest criminals and to prevent further crime. You are a disciplined force, and I count on you to maintain that discipline, no matter what provocation you receive."

"Accounts of reprisals in certain newspapers often are misleading, and frequently misrepresent cases of justifiable self-defense as reprisals, but there are cases, unfortunately, in which unjustifiable action has been taken, and these cases are being investigated."

Three Constables Slain.

Once again a Sinn Féin shooting affray has been followed by swift reprisals.

According to Dublin dispatches, uniformed men wrecked and burned several houses in Drimoleague, County Cork, last night. This town was the scene of the shooting of Sergt. Deo on the previous night.

Near O'Brien's bridge, in Limerick, a night police patrol was fired upon and Constables O'Keefe and Downing were shot dead last night.

Another police patrol was ambushed at Templemore yesterday and Constable Norman was shot dead. Constable Ferris was wounded and Constable Flood is reported missing.

Armed, masked men boarded two steamers at Dublin today and took away a number of revolvers, rifles, and much ammunition.

Closing of Queenstown Called Right of Britain's

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—State department officials hold that Great Britain is well within its rights in closing the port of Queenstown to transatlantic vessels. This followed the report that passengers on the American steamship Panhandle State were to protest because that vessel was not permitted to enter Queenstown harbor.

"LOST" DAUGHTER IS FOUND

Ward Baker, eccentric violinist who gained fame in street concerts, and Ellen Cole Baker, his 13 year old daughter, for whose custody he is fighting, are reunited in Judge Brentano's court.

A Violinist's Story

WARD BAKER, violinist extraordinary, for ten years traveled the country over, playing on the streets that he might earn enough to pay for further study in Europe. He went to Europe, studied faithfully, and many said he had won success.

"But I hadn't," he said yesterday. "for it seems I've lost my daughter, and I would rather have her than the plaudits of any audience in the world."

Ellen Cole Baker, 13 years old, heard his statement in Judge Brentano's court, and answered it in her own way.

"You are wrong, daddy—you have found your daughter," she said, and she kissed him.

She was in court because her father had filed a writ asking her custody. She is now in the Mary Wood school at Evanston and Mrs. Fred A. Hatch of Spring Grove, her father's sister, is her guardian.

During Baker's absence in Europe his wife divorced him, charging desertion. Later in a fit of despondency she committed suicide. Then Ellen was transferred from one relative to another, until Judge C. P. Barnes of Woodstock appointed Mrs. Hatch as guardian. Baker since has remarried.

"I am perfectly willing that my brother shall have his daughter if the court decides he is competent to give her the education she deserves," Mrs. Hatch explained. "If it is decided otherwise, I wish to treat Ellen as my daughter."

Mr. and Mrs. Hatch are reputed to be wealthy. Hatch formerly was a trustee of the University of Illinois and is counted an expert in modern agricultural methods.

The hearing was continued until next Thursday.

Canada Gives Up Idea of Ambassador to U. S.

IRELAND CHOSE OWN REPUBLIC, DE VALERA SAYS

Rejects Viscount Grey's Dominion Plan.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—The new proposals put forward by Viscount Grey, former British ambassador to the United States, that Ireland be allowed to draw up her own scheme of government on a dominion basis, reserving to Great Britain only control over foreign policy and united military forces, was met today by Edmond de Valera, "president of the Irish republic."

"Ireland, he said, had drawn up its own form of government 'with a regard for correct procedure and a unanimity which is without parallel.'"

Retains British Control.

"The first step that Viscount Grey takes is to propose the continuance of the restriction of Irish rights," he said. "Britain is to have control of our foreign policy and have control of the forces on which the dominion of the Irish state would have to rely to defend its independent authority."

"Ireland is to be forced into a union with Britain which she does not want. Ireland is to be forced to share in the British imperialistic domination of other peoples by assuming a part responsibility for Britain's army and navy which Ireland does not want. So far from being in any way covetous of a share in Britain's empire, to the Irish people that empire and all it stands for is abhorrent."

Britain puts forward the plea of national security. If Britain really fears for that the Irish people will, I believe, readily consent to give Britain a guarantee which can be ratified internationally that they will never allow their island to be used as a basis of attack on British independence. But does Viscount Grey's own league of nations give the necessary security?"

PRESS SPLIT ON GREY PLAN.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The high reputation of Viscount Grey, former ambassador to the United States, assured his Irish proposals prominence in the press. Although they were received with interest and respect, it cannot be said, however, that they awakened much enthusiasm, while in some quarters they are rejected almost impatiently.

The Daily News, which is the most favorable commentator, says today: "There is nothing in the proposals which an Englishman ought not to be glad to endorse if he can thereby free himself from the intolerable discredit for what is happening in Ireland, nor anything which a patriotic Irishman should be unwilling to accept if thereby he can free his country from the misery in which she is plunged."

The Daily Telegraph calls the proposals nebulous.

"Fifteen months ago the cabinet might have solved the Irish problem by a bold, swift stroke," the Times says. "Now nothing short of some policy of the kind Viscount Grey suggests can lead to a settlement."

Unionists Not Pleased.

BELFAST, Sept. 30.—Commenting upon the proposals of Viscount Grey

DEMOCRATS AND G. O. P. TAKE UP IRISH QUESTION

Ireland and the Irish question developed yesterday as the prime consideration in statements made by the publicity department of the Republican and Democratic national committees. Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman was put forward as spokesman for the Republican view of the league of nations and its relations to Ireland. National Chairman George H. White of the Democratic national committee issued a sharp attack upon Senator Harding with respect to his "record" on the Irish question.

Senator Sherman criticized the position taken by President Wilson in his letter to E. M. Swartz and charged that article 17 of the league of nations is ignored, and pointed to the danger of war with Ireland if the Wilson view prevailed.

Mr. White charged that Senator Harding has always "failed to sympathize with the aspirations of the Irish people."

for the solution of the Irish problem, the Unionist News Letter condemns the scheme advanced by the viscount, saying:

"It conforms to the traditional policy of all British attempts to pacify Ireland in that it follows the line of least resistance. Until British statesmen abandon that policy and base Irish legislation upon principle rather than the expediency of the moment, the Irish question will remain unsettled."

EUROPE FACTOR IN WILSON ACTION ON SHIP TREATIES?

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Fear on the part of Great Britain and Scandinavian countries that abrogation of commercial treaties by the United States would work to the advantage of Japan were reported today to have been one of the factors entering into the decision of President Wilson to refuse to carry out instructions contained in the merchant marine act.

The reason for such fears, it was reported, was that while provision is made in some of the treaties for a six months' notice of abrogation of the treaty with Japan cannot be terminated except on a two years' notice. It was stated that the complaining nations thought Japan would retain advantages during the two year period not enjoyed by the others.

Those favoring carrying out terms of the merchant marine act, however, say it would have been possible for the president to notify all countries of the intention to consider all the treaties terminated at the end of a two year period. Such a procedure, it is said, would have given no ground for charges of discrimination as between countries.

Agitation over the question is certain to be renewed at the coming session of congress, with a possible message from President Wilson to give impetus to it. The general belief is that congress will fall either to repeal this action or make any changes in it.

In the event of the election of Senator Harding as president an effort undoubtedly will be made to have him give notice of the termination of the treaties.

GUAM EASY PREY SURROUNDED BY JAPAN'S ISLANDS

Uncle Sam's Mid-Pacific
Post at Mercy of Foe.

Guam is considered necessary and will be urged upon congress.

Base on Flank of Fleet.

But a still greater menace to the American possessions in the Orient, and to Hawaii and even to the United States itself, if her fleets were contained, is the award to Japan of the Marshall Islands. These lie to the southeast of Guam and to the southwest of Hawaii. They are chiefly of atoll formation, and one of them contains a lagoon large enough for the accommodation of a considerable number of warships, while there is ample ground for the erection of repair shops and establishment of an aviation field, two very important items in the event of fleet operations or commerce raiding.

A hostile naval force lying in wait in the Marshall Islands would be on the flank of merchant or supply ships crossing the Pacific to the support of the Philippines, or a menace to the Pacific fleet going to the aid of the Asiatic fleet. The fleet could not proceed from Honolulu until any possible force in the Marshall Islands had been hunted down and destroyed or contained, for otherwise the hostile force could cut American communications between Honolulu and Guam.

Guam Easy Prey.

In the twenty years the Americans have been in possession of Guam, but little has been done in the way of the development of a naval base here. Of course, the chief reason is that until the last few years there has been no thought that we ever would be embroiled with a power in the Pacific.

REBEL LEADER DIAZ TO LEAVE MEXICO FOR CUBA

Biebee, Ariz., Sept. 30.—Gen. Angel Almaraz, until recently chief lieutenant under Gen.

Felix Diaz, rebel leader of Vera Cruz, passed through Osborn on route to Los Angeles, where he will make his home. Gen. Almaraz said Felix Diaz would soon leave for Cuba, where he has purchased a large sugar plantation, taking with him a number of his former followers.

FELIX DIAZ.

The navy has asked for little for Guam, but has received even less. Practically no garrison is maintained here. The only establishment is that necessary to the naval government. A bat-tailon of marines, a guard for the cable station and the radio station and a hospital detachment are the largest forces. There are no ships assigned to Guam except a couple of tugs and a small vessel that on emergency could be used as a mine planter.

The garrison, small as it is, could be compelled to surrender by a blockade extending over a couple of months, for the navy is compelled to import, not only the food for the American forces there, but also for the islanders, as pointed out in a previous letter, since they do not grow enough for their own necessities. One of the problems of the naval government is to educate the natives to the importance of agriculture and the creation of granaries here which would guarantee at least six months' supplies.

There are some 15,000 inhabitants of the island, of whom 8,500 live in Agaña, the capital. Save for those in the capital they live in the most primitive fashion. They will not dwell on their farms, but insist on living in the city or in the hamlets which dot the island, which is thirty miles in extreme length and has a width varying from four and one-half to eight miles. The area is 225 square miles.

Chance for Production.

A large percentage of the soil is agricultural and the island could support ten times the population, if the natives would work. The Japanese would make it a wonderful producer, as they surely will with the other islands of the group they have so recently acquired.

The problem of the navy in making the island really worth while as a base is to make it capable of supporting a garrison. This can be done only through the schools and the stimulation of agriculture in the children, and it will be some years yet before the result of this education can be felt.

The chief drawback to agriculture is the inclination to live in the villages instead of on the farms. The natives spend hours of each day in going back and forth to their little plots in their slow moving ox or caribou-drawn carts. More hours and more acres planted is the navy's chief hope.

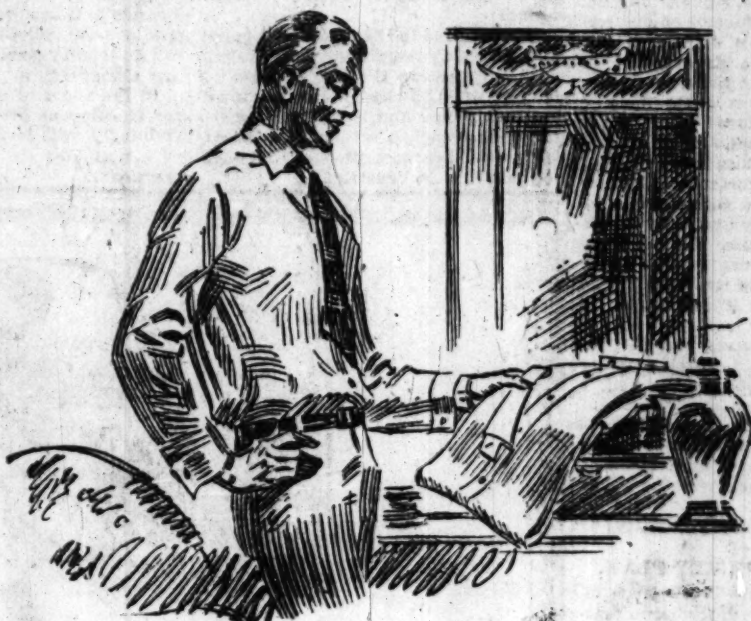

HOW TO REGISTER CHINESE WAIF'S BIRTH A PUZZLE

How to issue a birth certificate in the name of a little Chinese girl whose parents are unknown and whose birthday can only be approximated is a problem of the city health department. Shirley Constance Li is the little oriental who is causing all the fuss. She was left on the doorstep of Mr. and Mrs. Li Wah, 6822 Langley avenue, and has since been legally adopted by them and baptized in the Christian faith.

The Rev. Charles Virden, agent for the department of public welfare, laid the problem before Assistant Health Commissioner Gottfried Koehler yesterday.

The foster parents are extremely anxious that Shirley shall have a certificate—that she may start life like other little girls, the Rev. Mr. Virden said.

DENIES KAISER'S SON STOLE HER FROM HUSBAND

Musician Fights Suit of H. C. Lyon Jr.

"Ex-Kaiser Wilhelm is a shriveled up, little old man, his oldest son, the former crown prince, is detestable and I hate him more than any other man in the world, but Prince Eitel Fritz—well, he's different, more English, more human, a very nice fellow."

The former Imperial German household was thus described in Judge Sabath's court yesterday by Mrs. Violet Trumbull Lyon, an artist of the faculty of the Minneapolis School of Music who studied in the capitals of Europe and played the piano before a number of the crowned heads.

She took the stand to refute the assertion made by her father-in-law, H. C. Lyon, state veterinarian of Minnesota, that "she had evinced a lively sympathy for the kaiser and had fallen in love with one of his sons." Her husband, H. C. Lyon Jr., a resident of Winnetka, is seeking a divorce on a charge of desertion.

"I Love My Husband."
Mrs. Lyon said she had studied under Theodore Leschetizky of Berlin and Carl Hoffmeister, under whom Padewski received much of his tutelage.

"My teachers have remarked that I had the smallest hands of any of their students," she stated.

"I am contesting this divorce action simply because I do not believe that divorce is justified before God, and I love my husband and am willing to live with him," she testified in reply to a question by her lawyer, W. B. McGonigle.

"He left me," she continued. "It was during the war and I thought he might have enlisted. The draft board, however, wrote, asking for his address, and one of the members said 'It looked like a slacker case.' I couldn't find him."

The testimony of Lyon that his wife had deserted him was such as to lead Judge Sabath to instruct Lyon's attorneys that unless he produced further proof the case would be dismissed.

R. J. DUNHAM,
ARMOUR & CO.
CHIEF, QUILTS

Official in Several Packing Concerns.

Robert J. Dunham, vice president of Armour & Company, yesterday announced his resignation from the staff of the Chicago packing concern. Mr. Dunham stated his resignation would take effect Nov. 1 and that he had no definite future plans at present. There have been rumors in La Salle street of an impending change in the Armour organization, but Mr. Dunham's retirement came as a surprise.

Mr. Dunham is chairman and formerly was receiver of the Kansas City Railway company, which the Armour interests control. The former receivership was terminated about five years ago, but recently the property again was placed in receivership. In addition, Mr. Dunham is an official in several of the Armour enterprises and it is understood he will retire from these connections. He is also a director of several banks.

Mr. Dunham joined the Armour organization in 1907, having previously been treasurer of the Western Cold Storage company. In 1909 he became assistant treasurer of Armour & Co. and soon after was elected a vice president. He is a member of a number of Chicago clubs and maintains a city home at 1521 North State street and a country home in Lake Forest. He was married to Miss Ethel L. Richardson of Chicago in 1899.

PLAN BOND COURT TO DEFEAT BAIL JUMPING CROOKS

Municipal Judges and Crime Board Act.

Disregard for law exhibited in the obtaining of freedom for Charles O'Malley, now a hunted fugitive, resulted yesterday in plans being formulated by the Chicago Crime commission, Municipal court officials, and county authorities with which they expect to eliminate or at least lessen the bonding evil.

In addition the "bond" trust received a body blow in the loss of its "ace," Louis Asher, 5233 Indiana avenue, used as a "sure bet," has quit the game and announced that he will never sign another bond. The O'Malley bond is the cause, he said.

Judge John F. Haas and Charles H. Krimbill, chief clerk of the criminal department of the Municipal court, intend to urge at the next meeting of the judges that an order be issued by the chief justice establishing a bond court. Each judge would be assigned to sit in this court in his turn and no other judge would be permitted to approve a bond.

Police Official to Aid.
A court clerk would be assigned to this court and also a police official. All bond records would be available and no imposition could be practiced on the court and the police official could advise as to the record of the person under arrest. The court would sit until midnight and between then and morning no bail accommodations would be granted to criminals.

The plan is endorsed by Henry Barrett Chamberlain of the crime commission. The commission is also arranging an extensive card index system which will record all bonds and keep a check on each piece of property scheduled, the name of the surety and the defendant.

Hunt for O'Malley.
The case with which justice was cheated by O'Malley after his capture in a desperate gun battle aroused a determination on the part of many persons to effect his recapture. Detectives are searching the country for him.

The principal loser by the bond jumping was Asher, who declared yesterday that he would spend any amount necessary to restore the fugitive to the custody of the police. One thousand dollars was put up by him to defray the expenses of detectives and a large amount expended in scattering the gunman's picture broadcast.

"I made a mistake in signing that bond," Asher said yesterday. "I would not have signed it if I had known the truth. I was told that he was not a criminal and would surely be discharged in court. I did not know he had tried to rob a shop at the point of a gun until two days after he was released."

$250,000,000 IN "PAPER PROFITS" LOST ON SUGAR

New York, Sept. 30.—Holders of the 2,000,000 bags of sugar, the supply estimated as on hand in the United States, have felt a shrinkage of $250,000,000 in its value, due to recent drops in prices. This was the estimate of Edwin F. Atkins, made to Attorney General Allen of New York today.

Mr. Atkins is head of a local sugar firm and an official of several of the largest companies in this country. The attorney general expressed the opinion that the American Sugar Refining company should have absorbed some of the recent loss instead of making it compulsory for customers to do business on written contracts stipulating prices. Mr. Atkins said Mr. Allen's policy might have forced the big company into bankruptcy.

Between the time when sugar sold for 6½ cents a pound wholesale and the date it reached 22½ c. a lb., Mr. Atkins said, "fortunes were won or lost overnight" by the crowds of speculators who went into the market to "clean up."

SHIPPERS PAINT FUTURE CHICAGO AS WORLD PORT

See Ships from Every Sea
Loading at Our Docks.

A great nautical future, with ships from all the harbors of the world unloading their cargoes here, was prophesied for Chicago when members of the American Association of Port Authorities, holding their ninth annual convention, met last night in the Hotel Sherman.

"A great world port" was an oft-recurring phrase. Barges plying up the Mississippi river and connecting canals were pictured as meeting here with great ships which are to steam through the lakes after passing through the St. Lawrence river from the Atlantic.

See Ships from Every Sea.

John M. Glenn, secretary of the Illinois Manufacturers' association, hit the keynote when he said: "Men of vision can see the time when deep draft ocean liners—not only from Seattle, Vancouver, and San Francisco, but from Vladivostok, Yokohama, and other oriental ports, from London, Hamburg, and Cherbourg—will cast their hawsers as a daily matter of course over the mooring posts at Chicago wharves."

"Thousands of lighter draft vessels and barges," he went on, "will come up the Mississippi from New Orleans and the Gulf of Mexico, from Central and South America, from the south seas and the antipodes, and will reach Chicago by way of the Illinois and Des Moines rivers and the drainage canal."

"European carriers will voyage up

AUSTIN AND OAK PARK WAGE "SONG WAR" FOR SOLO PARTS IN REVUE

Young singers of Austin and Oak Park are competing for solo honors in the second annual presentation of the "Sheridan Spot Lites," a musical revue, staged under direction of Phil Sheridan, council, Knights of Columbus, Austin.

The production will be given in Austin Masonic temple on Oct. 29 and Nov. 5. More than 100 boys and girls are taking part in the rehearsals and the competition of the two suburbs is keen.

James J. Murphy, who is directing the work, has announced the selection of Miss Lillian Gaynor, who sang one of the important roles last year, as one of the principal soloists for the coming performance. She is an Austin girl. There are several other roles for girls, for which Oak Parkers are contending.

the St. Lawrence with their cargoes of overseas goods, and will return with the products of Illinois manufacturing establishments, and the grain from the almost inexhaustible stores of the Mississippi valley."

Route to Cost $120,000,000.

The estimated cost of developing the Great Lakes route was placed at a maximum of $120,000,000. This sum would be expended principally for cutting connections, canals and erecting locks. As for the stakes-to-the-Gulf route, a bond issue of $20,000,000 has already been voted for making the Des Moines river navigable between Lockport and Utica, the only barrier to barge commerce from the Mississippi. Chicago's great duty to itself, as pointed out by Mr. Glenn, is the building of commodious harbor facilities. Unloading of heavy draft steamers cannot be economically accomplished, he said, until Harbor No. 3, extending from Sixteenth to Thirty-first street, has been completed.

In addition a belt line that would link the outer harbor with the various rail terminals would be necessary. Thus traffic congestion would be eliminated.

Rails Cannot Handle Traffic.

"One-half at least of the cost of transportation and the congestion of our present system are due to the fact that we have neglected the economic development of our waterways," Mr. Glenn asserted. "When Chicago becomes a great inland port we shall hear less about our famine and coal famines."

"Now that railroad transportation costs have become excessively high and it has become easily apparent that the rails cannot accommodate more than a small percentage of the traffic, the only thing left is to develop the waterways."

Those short sighted individuals who believe that the future transportation needs of the Mississippi valley can be cared for by the railroads alone resemble the London bourgeois who could not vision the day when the greatest city in the world would outgrow the walls that confined the English metropolis to the narrow limits about the tower."

Sees City of 20,000,000.

Forecasting that Chicago would grow from a city of 3,000,000 to a super-metropolis of 20,000,000 persons, Mr. Glenn pointed out the great necessity of providing means for receiving and shipping its articles of industry and consumption.

A coal famine such as imperiled Chicago last winter might have been avoided if there had been barges and waterways to relieve the railroads of the task of transporting Illinois' 20,000,000 tons of fuel, he said.

In this connection, Theodore Brent, federal manager of the Mississippi river service, took up a discussion of the terminal question.

"Chicago is the preeminent traffic gateway of the United States—the crossroads and the clearing house of the nation's business," he said.

Mentioning the inadequacy of rail transportation and the necessity of water traffic, Mr. Brent stated that the latter must become to be a real service in industrial Chicago until there is provided a joint terminal where rail and water freight may be interchanged.

Suggests Terminal Sites.

The most desirable places for such terminals, he said, would be near the points where the inner and outer belt lines intersect with the drainage canal.

As for freight which is consigned to this city via the lakes to Gulf route, it is imperative that loading and unloading points be established in places where the loops already overburdened traffic will not be added to by and drays, he asserted. Two terminals were suggested—one on the north branch of the river near the street, the other on the west side of the south branch between Sixteenth and Twenty-second streets.

Other speakers last night were James R. Bibbins and Former City Engineer John Ericson.

Mayor Welcomes Visitors.

The morning and afternoon sessions were given over to the reading of reports on various harbors of the two American seaboard. Mayor Thompson made the welcoming address, using upon his hearers the necessity of providing adequate means for carrying on the commerce of the middle west.

I'M DRY, SAYS COX AFTER ARID TRIP THROUGH KANSAS

Hecklers on Wilson Acts
Irritate Him.

BY ROBERT B. SMITH.

Wichita, Kas., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Gov. James M. Cox, stumping through Kansas today, assailed the Republican policy toward Mexico and declared proposals to send American troops to protect "adventurers" who knowingly go into a "hornet's nest."

A man in the audience at Newton, Kas., wanted to know about his attitude and that of Senator Harding on the Mexican question.

"I think he [Senator Harding] made a speech recently in which he said: 'That we were going to protect American interests anywhere and everywhere.'"

"The governor replied, 'That means Mexico. It is one thing to talk about protecting an American citizen, no matter where he might be on the face of this earth. That sounds all right.'"

"But I believe that when an adventurer goes into a hornet's nest and knows where he is going the United States ought not to send a brigade of soldiers with him."

Find Kansas Inquisitive.
Gov. Cox found the Kansas voters, men and women alike, in an inquisitive mood. Besides asking him about his position on the Mexican situation they wanted to know how he would have voted on the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act, what his policy would be toward Russia, whether he thought force would be necessary to back up the league of nations, and whether he approved Britain's having six votes to America's one in the league assembly.

The Democratic nominee tried hard to rub the "wet" brand off his candidacy in "dry" Kansas. He asked about his stand on the liquor issue, he told an audience at Hutchinson he would have voted "dry" just as Senator Harding did.

Irritated by Hecklers.
The governor showed signs of irritation over being heckled about acts of the Wilson administration. When a man at Newton asked him why President Wilson vetoed the Volstead act, he exclaimed:

"My friend, Wilson isn't running for president this year. Cox is running for president. He hastened to add: 'And that is no disrespect intended to a man who, at the very moment he passes into the spirit world, will take his

DEATH TAKES TWO VETERAN READERS OF THE TRIBUNE

THE TRIBUNE lost two of its oldest readers yesterday, when Pope C. Huntington and John Q. Ferguson died.

The former was a reader of the paper for fifty years. The latter knew its editions of sixty-six years ago, having sold it as a boy of 13.

Mr. Huntington, who was 85 years old, came to Chicago in 1840 from Rome, N. Y. The first paper he saw here was a Tribune, and a short time before his death, which occurred at the home of his son, James B. Huntington, 2908 Lake Park avenue, he told how he had been a subscriber ever since.

Mr. Huntington was an employe of Henry Hafer & Son, coal merchants, 1101 LaSalle building. He leaves a widow and one son.

Mr. Ferguson was 79 years of age. He had lived in Chicago or vicinity ever since he was 3 years old. At the age of 13 he sold the Tribune on the streets. He entered the army at the beginning of the civil war. For the last five years he had been a bailiff in the late Judge Tutthill's court. He leaves a widow and four children.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at the chapel, 4141 Cottage Grove avenue, under the auspices of U. S. Grant post, No. 28, G. A. R.

position in history side by side with Jefferson and Lincoln."

A woman in the audience at Newton asked the question: "If we have the league of nations, what will it do with Russia?"

Gov. Cox made this reply: "The league would be compelled to keep hands off Russia and permit the Russian people to work out their own salvation. And Russia will work out its own salvation, after which we would say to Russia: 'We would like to have you become a member of the league of nations.'"

The governor concluded his Kansas campaign tonight.

Poorhouse Gates Close on Raymond, Music Teacher

A check for $2 was received yesterday. It was sent by "O. J. H." to help keep Carl Raymond, aged music teacher, from the poorhouse. The rest of the world, however, didn't seem to care what became of the old man who brightened Chicago's younger days with songs the populace loved to sing. It went on about its business as usual, unmindful of an old man's departed glory. Yesterday the gates of the county poor farm closed behind Carl Raymond.

Adams Street Merchants Give Mail Carrier $1,000

Charles Foley, government mail carrier for forty years before he was retired under the provisions of the civil service retirement act last fall, was presented with a $1,000 check yesterday, the gift of merchants on the Adams street beat, where he had not missed a day's delivery in twenty years. The letter containing the check was handed to Mr. Foley at the office of the Wabash Cabinet company, 219 West Adams street.

Former Minister Held on Charge of Con Game

H. C. Chambers, a former minister, who was arrested recently in Minneapolis on a charge of fleeing stockholders in the Black Diamond Oil company out of thousands of dollars, was brought back to Chicago yesterday by Detective Sergeant Thomas McFarland. He was booked on a charge of operating a confidence game. Joseph Rosier, 6045 Prairie avenue, told the police he had paid $10,000 to Chambers for stock in the oil company and lost it.

TAFT, HOOVER, TO TAKE STUMP FOR HARDING'S CAUSE

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Marion, O., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—Former President Taft and Herbert Hoover will take the stump for the Republican ticket about Oct. 15, Senator Harding announced today. The presidential campaign will go on high speed from that on until Oct. 28. Senator Harding denied reports today he had been advised that Senators Johnson and Borah had threatened to leave the stump unless they were assured by him that he would not take the Wilson league of names in any form. He said he had not written any letters to them on this subject and had not received any. He added he would not discuss the international situation in a private letter unless he said the same thing in public. Denies Letter to Taft. It was reported he had written a letter to Mr. Taft on this subject advising him that, while he was trying to keep the irreconcilables in line now, after election he would approach the international situation with an open mind and friends of the league need not fear him. This the senator also denied emphatically. He has not heard from Ethel Root since Mr. Root returned to this country, he said today. Mr. Root is not expected to take any active part in the campaign. Those who have followed closely the candidate's utterances on the international situation think one of the first things he will do after the election is to appoint a commission of eminent men, experts in international law and commerce, which will be sent to Europe to study the situation and make a practicable program which the new administration can follow, a program which will have a united America and willing Europe behind it.

Big Day in Marion. Tomorrow is a big day on the front porch—social justice day, with an address of special interest to the women of the country. Five thousand women are expected to join in the demonstration. Two hundred women will come from Chicago. In this Chicago group will be fifteen or twenty young women, daughters of foreign born citizens, arrayed in the costumes of their parents' native countries. There also will be a delegation of colored women. The women's conference in session at Columbus will adjourn to Marion. On Saturday the senator will attend a farmers' picnic and flag-raising at Wilson's Corner, near Plain City, O. A crowd of 15,000 is expected.

The candidate is making no more dates, he said today. He is not expected to speak in Chicago, and New York is in doubt. The senator was shown a telegram today which had been sent to Gov. Cox by Charles Sumner Bird of Massachusetts, former progressive, and a close friend of the late Col. Roosevelt. It read in part:

Cox Campaign Rapped. "In your acrobatic campaign to attract voters you endeavor to convey the impression that the Progressive followers of the late Theodore Roosevelt have been ignored and outlawed by Senator Harding, who, as you express it, seeks advice from only a 'certain type of men'—namely: standpatners and reactionaries. "The opposition to you of such Progressives as Johnson, Poindexter, Beveridge, James A. Garfield, McCormick, Baldwin, Robbins, and, in fact, by practically all of the Progressive leaders who stood back of Col. Roosevelt in 1912 and 1916, is a complete refutation of this oft repeated, misleading, and tricky statement of yours."

Policemen Suspended on Charges of Union

Detective Sergeants William McNamara and James McGinnis and Desk Sergeant Peter B. Brown of West Chicago station were suspended last night by Chief of Police Garrity on charges made by John C. Shanahan, president of the Truck Drivers' union. It is claimed Shanahan and fourteen other agents of the union were taken to the station and held for nearly three hours when they visited the garage of the Rosetti Ice Cream company to persuade employees to join their union.

LEGION DEMANDS OFFICIAL SCALP OF LOUIS F. POST

Charges He Obstructed
Deportation Law.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 30.—Dismissing from office of Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of labor, for obstructing the enforcement of the alien deportation law was recommended in a resolution adopted by the new national executive committee of the American Legion here today.

The resolution quotes the league's special investigating committee as charging that Post has been guilty of obstructing the enforcement of the alien deportation laws and "that his continuance in office constitutes a serious menace to public security."

The committee approves this report and directs the national commander to take all steps necessary to secure the dismissal of Post at the earliest possible moment.

The investigating committee's report was signed by M. K. Gordon of Kentucky, chairman; Wilbur C. Hall, Virginia, and Crampton Harris, Alabama. Virtually all who spoke in favor of the adoption of the report and resolution stated that while they were Democrats they were better Americans.

Among those who favored it were Emmet O'Neil of Kentucky, Roy Hoffman of Oklahoma; Henry Lindsay former state commander and former mayor of Dallas, Tex., and Committee Storey of Texas and Dr. J. H. of the District of Columbia.

It was explained that this was not a commission of the legion to politics, but that it was an outspoken utterance on a fundamental principle of Americanism and that if they as Democrats should remain silent it would appear as if they had something to cover up.

Gov. Cox's 10 Claims on Yanks

New York, Sept. 29.—Ten reasons why former service men should support the Democratic national ticket, prepared by Gov. Cox, were made public here tonight by the Democratic national committee. The reasons given in the statement are:

"Because they have constantly talked the broadest principles of progressive development, conforming to the spirit of the century for independent political judgment."

"Because its candidates have never said and never believed that sentiment recently uttered by Senator Harding when he said, 'too much is heard of independence in politics.'"

"Because in this year the Democratic party represents the honor of the country, because it believes in keeping faith with the living and faith with the dead, faith with our allies and faith with our foes."

"Because the Democratic party stands for a league of nations, the existing league, to end war, to compose differences by adjustment of wrongs through the processes of world opinion."

"Because it would have America assume its rightful place at the head of the nations of the world, unafraid to take its place as a leader."

"Because only through the league of nations can order be brought to the world."

"Because the Democratic candidates despise to appeal to racial bigotry."

"Because the Republican party leaders have unblushingly appealed to the disloyalists of the United States."

"Because the Democratic administration wrote into the laws of the country the federal reserve act, the farm loan act, and other pieces of legislation that enabled it to master the resources of the country at a critical time, so that all Americans, regardless of party, might win the greatest of all wars for humanity and for high principles."

"Because, notwithstanding that many conditions are not ideal, America is at this hour the safest place in which to live, the most desirable, and the best from every standpoint, and because it will come through progressive evolution to a still higher plane of development despite the attempts of reactionaries like Senator Harding to stop it."

OWNERS OPPOSE ASHLAND PLANS, CAPTAIN SAYS

Charges that Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements, in preparing for the improvement of Ashland avenue from Ninety-fifth street to Pratt boulevard, is "clearly violating the law and proceeding against the wishes of hundreds of property owners" were made yesterday by Ald. Henry D. Captain of the Twenty-fifth ward.

He said Mr. Faherty and Charles Wacker of the Chicago Plan commission have agreed on a plan to force the widening of Ashland avenue north of Pratt boulevard to Rogers avenue, which was not provided for in the ordinance submitting the question to the voters.

STEAM THE FOOD, DON'T BOIL IT, THIS DOC SAYS

Claims Real Nourishment
Is Lost in Water.

When the average wife prepares dinner she is ever so careful to scrub the potatoes clean, peel them carefully, boil them just long enough, then throw out the yellow water and substitute some condensed milk and a piece of butter, then beat them to a creamy froth. Hubby smacks his lips. Friend wife is pleased. There is glowing good humor all through dinner. But next morning nobody feels good. The breakfast does not go so well. What is wrong with the happy family? It was those dandy potatoes, according to Dr. R. S. Boynton of Bellingham, Wash., a member of the Central Society of Physical Therapists, which is holding a convention at the Hotel La Salle.

MRS. SAMUEL BARNETT, LONDON SOCIOLOGIST, TO GIVE TALK HERE

Mrs. Samuel Barnett is here from London and will speak next Thursday before the Chicago Women's City Club.

She is an authority on sociology and philanthropic work among young women. She founded the Hampstead Garden suburb in 1905 and is now its director and honorary manager. She has given lectures on housing all over the world. She is the author of "Making a Home," "Making of the Body," "How to Mind the Baby," "The Place of Woman in Philanthropy," and "Practical Socialism."

spell health," Dr. Boynton says. "While milk not pasteurized, is a nourishing food. But even this will not replace the vegetable water that goes down the kitchen sink. If people must throw away something let them throw away the bulk of the peas and beans and potatoes and save the water, into which has been boiled all the nourishment that they contain.

"A steam cooker only should be used to retain the health giving properties of foods, even meats, in the hulk itself," Dr. Boynton continued.

"The steam draws the juice out of the meat and vegetables in the pan. The food is cooked in its own juice, as it should be.

"An apple a day keeps the doctor away, but that means an apple with the skin on.

"No living animal will go after our present refined white sugar. But try them on the old-fashioned brown. The animals shun our white flour, even the nibbling mouse. Animals have an instinct for the things that are good for their well being."

"HARD BOILED" SMITH SOUGHT NO CLEMENCY

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—Lieut. Frank H. (Hard Boiled) Smith, whose release from prison following conviction by court martial of brutal treatment of American soldiers in France, has just become known, objected to any clemency, Secretary of War Baker said today.

Smith's commanding officer, the secretary said, had appealed for a reduction of the eighteen months' sentence. Smith objected to any change in his term, saying he wished to serve out his sentence to avoid further publicity.

Sentence Had Expired.

The war department today explained Smith was free because his sentence had expired. His imprisonment began at Fort Jay, N. Y., on July 21, 1919, and continued until March 20, 1920, when because of good conduct he was granted a parole. He was released from parole July 23, when the reduced sentence expired.

"There is nothing unusual in the granting of parole in this case," the war department says. "Paroles are recommended after proper investigation by the commandant of the disciplinary barracks and formal approval of such recommendations is given by the war department."

Free Since Last July.

Leavenworth, Kas., Sept. 30.—Frank H. (Hard Boiled) Smith, former army lieutenant, has been free from all military custody since July 23 last, when his sentence expired, officials at the United States disciplinary barracks said today.

Smith was sentenced to confinement here, but was never brought here. It is said he was paroled while awaiting transfer from Fort Jay, N. Y., to Fort Leavenworth last spring. From Fort Jay, it is announced, Smith went to his home in Palmyra, O. From there he reported monthly to the parole officer here, in compliance with the terms of his parole.

54,796,100 IN CITIES; COUNTRY HAS 50,972,000

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—Cities are increasing in population seven and a half times as fast as the rural districts, the census bureau disclosed tonight in a compilation of figures covering approximately 85 per cent of the new census. The figures indicated that the completed census would show the majority of the population to be city dwellers.

For the last ten years rural growth was but one-third as great as it was in the previous decade, but the cities almost maintained their rate of growth, getting five new inhabitants from 1910 to 1920 for each six added during the preceding ten years. All population centers, even the small country hamlets and towns, showed a greater proportionate increase than the purely rural districts. The greatest increases, however, were by cities of 10,000 or more inhabitants.

Reasons for Cities' Gains. While the bureau attempts no explanation of the reasons for the increasing migration to the cities each year during the last decade, presumably higher wages, shorter working day, and home conveniences attracted the rural population, especially during the war, when wages in big industrial centers went up rapidly.

Although showing a check in the rate of population growth for the country as a whole, the bureau's figures indicated that the complete census would place the total number of inhabitants of the continental United States at approximately 105,768,100, a gain of 13,795,840, or 15 per cent.

Where Increase Goes. Cities will absorb practically all of this increase, it being estimated that 12,172,500 would reside in towns of 2,500 or more inhabitants, while 1,623,040 would be added to the farms, and the small hamlets. For the country side itself, the increase would be approximately one million and a quarter. Such a movement of the people will place the urban population at approximately 54,796,100 and the rural population at 50,972,000. In 1910 the rural population outstripped that of the cities by almost 7,000,000 people, there being 48,945,555 in the country and 41,945,555 in the cities.

SISTERS ACCUSE TWO MEN HELD ON NURSES' CHARGES

Herbert Allardick, 3295 North Paulina street, and William Bouillon, 1833 Marianne street, were arraigned yesterday before Judge Hugh R. Stewart, charged with assaulting Miss Ruth Dutera and Miss Helen Gunselman, nurses, following an automobile ride on Sept. 23.

Miss Dutera testified she and Miss Gunselman were walking home late at night, when approached by the two young men.

"They asked us to take a ride with them in an automobile," Miss Dutera said. "They promised to take us home. Instead, they took us away out north, where few people live."

She said the men then assaulted them and they were left to go home alone. A policeman rescued the girls and arrested Allardick and Bouillon.

Accused by Other Girls.

Anna Fay, 19 years old, and her sister, Florence, 15, also signed complaints against the prisoners, charging they attempted to assault them near Lincoln and Sheffield avenues, on Aug. 18.

The case was continued until next Thursday.

Dr. William J. Hickson, director of the laboratory of the Municipal court, said seven years' experience in the laboratory has confirmed his previous hospital experience showing that in 80 per cent of cases of a sex offense, the accused had been in insane hospitals once or twice before finally reaching a court.

"It is time for hospital authorities handling cases of this kind to learn to detect them," Dr. Hickson said. "They should be discovered by examination when young and sent to appropriate institutions or colonies and kept there."

Urges Constant Check on Morons.

"The solution is easy and clear. The city police soon after the murder of Janet Wilkinson made an effective drive against the so-called harmless half-wits who are responsible for most of the attacks upon women and children in Chicago, and it had a good effect. Many of them were committed to institutions where they can do no harm."

WOMEN OF HIS PARTY TO BOOST IGONE'S CAMPAIGN

Democratic women will conduct a vigorous campaign in behalf of Michael Igone.

Michael Igone, the party's nominee for state's attorney, will be led by Mrs. Anna L. Smith, Democratic committee woman for Illinois. Mrs. Smith declares that the choice of a state's attorney in the present campaign is peculiarly a woman's function because the mothers of Chicago are vitally interested in cleaning up the city.

Springfield to Make Self Downstate Art Center

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 30.—Promotion of the study and appreciation of art, especially as applied to industry, is the aim of the Springfield Art association, which has just completed a successful campaign to secure 350 sustaining members.

The old Edwards home, a center of social activity during the residence here of Abraham Lincoln, is to be the home now of the finest art collection in Illinois outside of Chicago, according to the plans.

The plans include bringing to the city exhibits of the greatest artists, lectures by authorities on art, an industrial exhibit, and a system of scholarships for deserving students.

"No wonder they're making such wonderful clothes!"

If you would get an inside peep into this great plant you'd be convinced, too.

IT IS not surprising that some men are skeptical when we offer a genuine custom-tailored suit or overcoat for as little as $40—made to special order.

"How can you do it," they demand—"when ready-made clothes, cut in quantity lots, average from $50 to $75 this season?"

If you could come and take a peep into our famous ten-story, sunshine tailor shops—and see the great sweet-running organization functioning there—you'd need no further answer.

Here we combine the artistry of the custom tailor with the economy of the big volume producer. Here we link the hand workmanship of the custom-maker with the buying power of the ready-made manufacturer.

And we sell direct—providing selling economies which the ready-made maker cannot enjoy. Royal clothes are never cut in quantities, and held for a possible future market. Each suit is sold before it is made—and it is shipped and delivered to its purchaser as soon as it is finished.

No Royal suit is ever kept on a merchant's stock shelf for months, gathering dust, depreciation and interest charges.

When you buy, we manufacture—and give you the benefit of your spot-cash purchase.

This is the new way—the coming way—of getting best value for your clothes money. And more and more, Chicago is awakening to its economic rightness.

You place your order direct at our wholesale plant—choosing from our entire wholesale range of fabrics and fashions—with a wealth of selections at $40 per suit or overcoat.

Why Ralston Tastes Good

To the golden grain of the western plains, to the fragrant fields of wheat, does Ralston owe all of its delicious flavor and wholesomeness. It smacks of the great out-of-doors.

For Ralston is the whole wheat berry, and the whole wheat berry contains distinctive flavors of goodness, and elements of great food value.

The outer coats and the nut-like kernel of the berry provide minerals and fats so necessary to the human body.

The heart of the berry contains the starch and gluten which means energy to the body, firm flesh and strong muscles.

So when you eat Ralston—you eat wheat—of all Nature's grains the one most perfectly adapted to the tastes and needs of the human body.

Give your youngsters Ralston Porridge—it is delicious, wholesome, nourishing—because it is wheat.

No Reduction in Price of Oakland Sensible Six

At this time when the public mind is disturbed by sensationally announced price reductions of automobiles and other merchandise and commodities, we desire to give assurance to those who require Personal Passenger Transportation, such as provided by the Oakland Sensible Six; that we do not anticipate reducing the price of our cars.

Starting with the production of the raw material required and continuing through to the finished product, over 80 per cent of the cost of an Oakland Sensible Six is labor.

Over 80 per cent of the cost of all other automobiles produced in large quantities is labor.

When wages paid to labor are reduced, or when labor produces more per man, then may manufacturers of honestly priced automobiles legitimately consider the reduction of their selling prices.

We have not heard of any instance where automobile workers are receiving lower wages.

If wages may be lowered eventually we see no immediate trend in that direction.

In the production of so essential a factor in our economic life as the passenger automobile—increasing as it does the personal efficiency of owners by nearly 57 per cent—we believe the workers whose toil produces the vehicle should be large beneficiaries of the constructive character of their work.

If abnormal demand has been responsible for over-enthusiastic expansion and inflated profits in certain instances, the wage earner should not be made to suffer as he must if powerful forces effect lower automobile prices whether or no.

True enough, there have been many instances of inflated prices. There has been profiteering. And, true enough, abnormal profits must be eliminated.

And that is what has been going on all around you recently—the price reductions you have witnessed in automobiles and other merchandise are the belated shaking out of the abnormal profits. The normal profits are still there.

Manufacturers whose goods have been priced on actual cost to produce, plus normal profit, have no inflated figures with which to appeal to the uninformed public in sensational announcements of "Price Reductions." Prudent, studious buyers will not be misguided by erroneous principles.

Oakland Price Advance in Five Years, Due to Increased Cost of Labor and Materials, Only 27.4 Per Cent

In 1915 Model 32 Oakland Sensible Six was put on the market at $795 f. o. b. factory.

Since 1915 the wheelbase of the Sensible Six has been lengthened five inches, its weight increased about four hundred pounds, its horsepower materially increased, its frame made deeper, and in many other ways the car has been enlarged, strengthened, improved and refined.

If the present Model 34-C had been built in 1915, it is more than conservative to say that, based on labor and material costs at that time, we would have been compelled to list it to sell at $1095, or more, f. o. b. factory.

We are therefore able to say, also with great conservatism, that the present price of Model 34-C represents an increase, due solely to increased cost of labor and material, of 27.4 per cent. Larger production each year has kept this increase at a low figure.

Compare this increase with the increase of other automobiles and with commodities—with the things you buy every day.

Nowhere have we been able to find a standard article of merchandise that has increased as little in selling price as the price of the Oakland Sensible Six.

In the event of unexpected reductions in the cost of the labor and material that enter into the construction of the Oakland Sensible Six to a point where we may properly and legitimately reduce the list price of our cars between October 1st, 1920, and May 1st, 1921, we will refund to every Oakland purchaser who buys within the above mentioned period of time the amount of such reduction

BIG TEN STARS TO HOLD INTEREST IN SATURDAY GAMES

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

With seven of the ten western conference football teams going into action tomorrow, playing of certain members of the league is expected to take an important part in the championship battles which will be closely watched.

Every year coaches select players to build a team who are expected to take an important part in the championship battles which will be closely watched.

The style of the formations depends upon the man's ability. If a player is a close field runner, plays are evolved which are expected to get him into the open. If he is an offensive driver, formations with a shifted line are chosen. The ability to throw a pass and receive throws and the cunning to execute trick plays are also taken into consideration.

ARNOLD OSS.

All Have Their Experts.

Practically every team in the conference is fortified with players efficient in one of these departments. Since the opening of the practice season coaches have been working on plays which will be sprung in the later and more important games. These formations have been built around the stars, some of whom showed their worth last year.

At Minnesota Coach Harry Williams has a stellar performer in Arnold Oss, rated one of the best half backs in the country last year. This player can drive off the tackles or run in the open and it is a certainty he will be a marked man in every Gopher battle. He showed to great advantage in Minnesota's important struggles last year and he should perform just as brilliantly this season. In addition to Oss, Minnesota has another player of ability in Capt. Arntson, quarter back.

Stinchcomb Ohio Hope.

Only State's plays will undoubtedly be built around Quarter Back Pete Stinchcomb. This player should be one of the best open field performers in the west, if not in the country, this year. He will be started from open formations of the spread variety and if he once gets loose will cause the opposing eleven no end of trouble.

Robert Fletcher, who won the 1919 conference championship for Illinois by booting a field goal in the closing minutes of play, will be among the players expected to win games for the Orange and Blue institutions. Fletcher is not of the flashy type, but liable to get the unexpected. Carney, the end, will be on the receiving end of a number of forward pass plays which Coach Zupke already has planned.

Cohen and Stiekete at Michigan.

At Michigan Coach Yost will look to Stiekete and Cohen for his yardage. As Stiekete will do all the punting and can run as well as kick the oval, he will be used to run the ends from punt formations. Cohen is an offensive driver of the Oss type who is expected to figure in all Michigan's games. Back in the old days, when Yost taught Billy Heston to run from either half back position, he employed an unbalanced line, and he may do the same for Cohen.

Catch Jones of Iowa undoubtedly has built most of his attack around the Devine brothers for the game with Indiana tomorrow. Both showed to good advantage last year in running the ends after receiving the ball on direct passes from the center.

Team Play for Chicago.

Unlike former seasons, Coach Stag of Chicago has no outstanding stars to build his attack around. He will rely mostly upon team play for his gains, although Cole and Hanisch are expected to be the chief ground gainers.

Outside of Buddy Lane Northwesters' ball carriers are unknown. Lane is a clever runner and if given proper support will be the Purple's chief asset in offensive play.

Prep Grid Player Breaks Neck in Scrimmage; Dies

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 30.—Melvin Keppeler, 17 years old, captain of the Lockhaven High school football team, died today in University hospital from a broken neck, received during scrimmage practice Wednesday. He was tackled while running at full speed, his head striking the ground. Before his death Keppeler exterminated his teammates from all blame.

GASOLINE ALLEY—AND THE DRIVER LOOKS STRAIGHT AHEAD

At Football Camps

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—Under the leadership of Capt. Neal Arntson, quarter back, the Minnesota football squad was handed one of the longest scrimmage drills of the season this afternoon at Northrup field. The "ghost" ball and are lights were called on his men. The variety scrimmaged for more than an hour against the frosh. The back field makeup was unchanged. Oss and Brown being at halves, McClinton at full, and Arntson at quarter. The linemen who will start against North Dakota Saturday have not been selected.

OHIO STATE.

Columbus, O., Sept. 30.—Coach Wiley is not satisfied with his team as it has been showing up this week. A cold at the moment sure greater life to the workout. Scrimmages were short, and followed by a lone session on the tackling dummies and additional drill practice, which lasted until dark. Elmer, second string end of last year's team, returned to school today, and brightened the bones for a strong pair of ends. Wiley has not been looking beyond a scrimmage with Western in preparing his team hoping to have a smooth working outfit by this time.

ILLINOIS.

Urbana, Ill., Sept. 30.—Real chilly football weather stimulated Zupke's workout today. The Illinois unit, the team that dropped in at a great disadvantage, and the athletes suffered. No game is carded for Saturday, but it is likely the team will meet the varsity. Local interest in the Iowa-Indiana scrap is keen, because the Hawkeyes play the first conference game on the local field, and Coach Frank Winters will expect Howard Jones' outfit at Bloomington this week end.

BARNES LEADS IN SOUTHERN GOLF

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 30.—Playing in a game of from forty to fifty miles an hour that swept across the Eastlake course and made good golf a matter of luck as well as skill, Jim Barnes of Sunset Hill led the field in the first round of the southern open championship, shooting a fine 75.

Bobby Jones, Atlanta amateur, was second with 78, while Jack Hutchinson of Chicago and Harry Hampton of Richmond were tied for third with 79.

VERBAL SCRIMMAGE IS HANDED MAROONS AS AN INSPIRATION

Mons. A. A. Staggs, gridiron coach at the University of Chicago, held open house for athletes at Bartlett gymnasium yesterday afternoon. Invitations were sent to fifty of the younger south side set, candidates for the Maroon football team. Informal discussions were held during the early part of the afternoon, with a shimmy number on the hardwood floor to close the enjoyable affair.

Once each year Coach Staggs gives his team verbal scrimmage, which includes a brief history of what former Maroon stars have done. It is both an inspirational talk to arouse the athletes by stories of noble deeds of their predecessors, and to recount the famous boners that have wrecked games in past years. A general quick of rules is included in the program.

The Maroons put in their usual morning workout at kicking, passing, and signals, spending two hours on the field. Rain in the afternoon drove the team indoors for the first and last time this season.

The shift of Bobbie Cole from half to quarter back on the first string was no great surprise to Midway followers, but it does not necessarily mean that the Oak Park flash will be there all season. It is probable that Coach Staggs will do considerable experimenting at the pilot position in the first two games against Purdue at Wabash.

PHASANTS OR PARK FISHING?

TODAY the sportsman has his choice of two pastimes—pheasant hunting or park fishing. The pheasant season opened this morning throughout Illinois, and the hunter is permitted to take two cock birds a day, the shooting of hens being illegal. If you don't see his long tail, don't shoot her! The season continues up to and including Oct. 5.

Pheasants are fairly plentiful in the state, particularly in the northern counties. We would venture the statement that there are more wild pheasants in and around Chicago than in any other part of Illinois. The birds have done wonderfully well in the Desplaines river valley, and while a good portion of the good pheasant cover is now included in the county forest preserve, there is much free shooting territory along the river and in spots in Cook, Lake, and McHenry counties.

The fishing season opens today in Washington park, giving a city-wide open season, as the fishing opened in the other parks Sept. 15. There is better fishing in the parks than is generally supposed. Oscar Tildon, 5951 Peoria street, who has been fishing Douglas park regularly, got a 7 1/2 pound pickerel a few days ago and has taken as many as eight black bass in a day, some of them scaling at better than two pounds. In addition to black bass, the ponds and lagoons of the parks are stocked every year with rock bass, blue gills, and other sun fish, with an occasional pickerel to lend excitement to the lucky one who hooks one of these big fish.

The best park baits are small lake shiners, but the big, fat "night crawler" anglers are good, as are soft-shelled crawfish, peeled crawfish tails and crickets. For trolling or casting a tiny spinner about the size of a dime, with a fly or hook baited with minnow, works very attractive, but a small strip of pork rind will do minnows are not to be had.

Fishing in the parks must be done from boats, as shore fishing is not permitted; but there are no other restrictions; written permits are not required as in former years.

R'IN PREVENTS CLEVELAND BOUT SET FOR TONIGHT

Cleveland, O., Sept. 30.—The ten round boxing contest between Benny Leonard, champion lightweight, and Jack Britton, champion welterweight, scheduled to be held at the American league park tonight, has been postponed until tomorrow night because of a heavy rain all day and cold weather.

"BUCK PRIVATE" TO HOLD SHOW.

QUALIFYING PLAY TO START IN ROUNDUP AT GLEN OAK TODAY

BY JOE DAVIS.

Glen Oak members and guests to the number of 100 will compete in the qualifying round of the fourth annual Roundup tournament today. The contestants will qualify in flights for the two rounds of match play carded for tomorrow. The main award is the Round Up trophy which will go to the player having low gross for 54 holes. The Round Up dinner will be held tonight.

Michael Agnew won first prize in the tournament of the Chicago Athletic association directors at Exmoor yesterday, his card being 97-22-75. President R. J. Collins and W. J. Mohr tied at 79 for second and third prizes. Other scores were: J. R. Lanfesty, Col. Howard, 82; J. Grassell, 87; F. Wentworth, 90; J. L. Harbard, 92.

The Ravistoe club will hold its harvest home dinner dance and entertainment tomorrow night at the club house. The biggest vaudeville show of the year is promised.

Pugilistic Pointers

ACCORDING to information received from the training camp of Carpenter in New Jersey, the Frenchman is setting a nice example for other fighters to follow. There aren't any nickel catchers at the door of Carpenter's gym, and those who make the trip to his camp are permitted to watch him work without paying an admission fee.

There may be a new face in one of the neighboring rings shortly. His name is Johnny Nichols, and he hails from St. Paul. Nichols is a welterweight, and is called the "Navy Torpedo." If he's that fast, he should go well at East Chicago, Kenosha, or Milwaukee. Nichols has had twenty-three bouts, won twenty-one, while two were called draws. That's a pretty good record.

Springfield, Ill., which hasn't made any noise pugilistically for many months, is ready for business again. The Associated Sports Promoters at the state capital, an organization of which L. E. Hodge is matchmaker, is to stage its season's inaugural tonight with a card of four bouts, the windup being fought between Leo Patterson, A. E. F. lightweight champion, and Young Harry Wills of Savannah, Ga.

BROWN EXPLAINS TREATMENT OF OLYMPIC STARS

Everett C. Brown, member of the American Olympic committee, who attended the world's games at Antwerp, has issued a statement in defense of the committee's action in handling the Yankee team across the coast.

According to Brown, who was in charge of raising a $20,000 fund from the Chicago district, the government had promised to take the athletes across the coast on the transport Mercury. One week before the date of sailing the transport was disabled and the Princess Matoka was pressed into service.

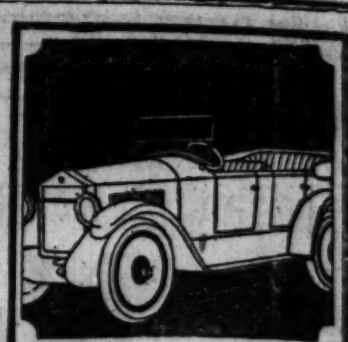

The team had to be sent across on this transport or left at home. Brown asserted the committee knew the ship was not fitted properly for training, but it was the best obtainable, as it was utterly impossible to engage passage on the regular liners. He also said there were no hotels in Antwerp which cared to house the American athletes. The committee then did the next best thing by putting the men up in a schoolhouse.

The committee accuses three or four athletes on the team of doing everything possible to break down the morale of the entire squad. One or two of these athletes, Brown asserted, have no visible means of support other than their athletic affiliations.

As far as was possible, Brown said, all the athletes were brought back on the best liners. Most of the men on the team, according to the committee, appreciated the conditions which confronted the American Olympic committee and showed their sportsmanship by refraining from any unfavorable comment.

William H. Mikkelsen, manager of the Chicago Insulating company, a well known sportsman, was rescued from drowning late yesterday afternoon off the foot of Junior terrace by Deah Bergen, a fisherman. Scores of Edgewater residents witnessed the fifteen minute struggle between the two men half a mile out in the lake, which ended when Bergen knocked the man unconscious by kicking him in the face and towed him ashore by his hair.

Mikkelsen, who was preparing to go duck hunting this morning with Bergen, was clad in hunting togs, heavy hip boots and a shell vest filled with ammunition. He was attempting to launch an eighteen foot dory in the heavy sea when Bergen, sitting on a log stinging decoys a short distance away, shouted a warning. Bergen, who lives at the foot of Montrose avenue, is known along the north shore as "Fish" Berg. He has saved a number of rescues. Bein was arrested, but was released on his promise to appear at the inquest at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The police of the West Chicago avenue station are investigating the death of a 4 year old Frank Vizzini, who died yesterday at his parents' home, 2657 Chicago avenue, of injuries received Wednesday, when he was struck by an automobile while on the way to the Holy Rosary parochial school at Erie street and Oakley boulevard.

The name of the driver of the machine was not learned and the police received no report of the accident until the death of the child.

Schwabacher Again Quits Wife as Bluebird Nears

"Sinless Sinner" Appeals to Court for Aid.

BY LEOLA ALLARD.

For the second time in her life Mrs. Madeline Harris Schwabacher has determined to fulfill what she deems the supreme destiny of womanhood. She discussed it yesterday during a visit to the Court of Domestic Relations for advice concerning her husband, Lieut. Herbert J. Schwabacher. He has ceased to contribute to her support, she said.

"But I shall not be denied my right to a mother's happiness," she added. "He knows. In our last talk together I told him: 'Herbert, our lives will soon be separated. We will have everything to live for. I was so happy as I began making little dresses and things. I thought he was, too. But it seems I was mistaken.'"

"Six months ago he went to work in Danville. Since then I have seen him only occasionally, and he has sent me no money. I have been living on the north side under an assumed name to avoid publicity. I shall have to go to the hospital before Nov. 1, and I don't know what to do."

The "Sinless Sinner."

The Schwabachers first gained publicity in November of 1918, when the husband, then overseas, filed suit for divorce. His attorney gave to the newspapers a letter written by Mrs. Schwabacher to her husband. It read, in part:

"I have no affairs of the heart with any man, but the sin I committed was a human sin, and dear boy, was committed with a purpose. My life was lonesome and dreary. . . I never expected to see the man I loved again. I wanted something to fill up my life when I would be alone in the world. Herbert, on the 14th of December I shall become a mother. That is my sin. It was not a love affair, although none but God, who reads my heart, knows that."

On Jan. 3, 1919, a boy came. He was named Herbert J. Schwabacher Jr. He died March 21 of the same year. The husband's divorce suit never came to trial. They were reconciled and lived together for many months, until last April when he went to Danville.

Refuses to Get Warrant.

"He is the only man I ever loved," she said yesterday. "I thought a child would cause him to love me all the more."

She declined to sign a warrant, so the complaint against the husband of the Court of Domestic Relations was written him a letter. He had agreed to contribute $75 a month to her support, she said.

JUDGE SABATH OUT FOR TITLE, MENDER OF HOMES

"The court where the mender of homes presides" is the title Judge Joseph Sabath is trying to win for his judicial chambers.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Bruno A. Bolts appeared. The woman had filed suit for divorce. The judge took the two to his private room and told them all about his plan.

The divorce suit was dismissed. The "mender of homes" had done his work.

Bruno Bolts (Tribune Photo.) owns a drug store valued at $35,000 at 2200 East Seventy-first street. Mrs. Bolts, a pretty woman, said pretty misunderstandings finally led to the divorce suit.

"Thank you, judge. You've done a lot for both of us. Sometime, maybe we can show you how much we appreciate the way you treated us, brought us together, and rebuilt our home," the two told him before they left the courtroom. "Here's hoping other folks who get in a mess like us find their way to you."

Judge Sabath has one ambition now. He wants to make a record as the jurist who caused the dismissal of the greatest number of divorce suits.

44 FAMILIES KEPT HOMELESS BY UNION ROW

Refuse to Work with
"Outside" Material.

This is moving day, but there will be no bustling ingress into the forty-four apartment structure at 401-47 Irving Park boulevard. The building should have been completed long ago. The material is ready, the tenants are all signed up, but—the carpenters refuse to work.

"The sashes, doors, and other trim have been on the ground for two months," R. A. Pottinger of 4030 Irving Park boulevard, the owner, said. "Just because they weren't manufactured in Chicago, the Carpenters' district council will not allow its men to put them in. The job would only require two weeks. Meanwhile some of my would-be tenants are suing me."

Mr. Pottinger ordered the necessary trim from the Anderson-Lind Manufacturing company last February. It was impossible to get the order filled in Chicago and the firm obtained outside material from out of town. Finally two-thirds of the trim was delivered and the carpenters started to work.

They were immediately ordered off duty, according to Mr. Pottinger. An injunction restraining the district council was obtained, but the carpenters were threatened with fines, the owner says, if they worked. Contempt proceedings before Judge McGoorty have been deferred until November.

"I have offered to do most everything," said Mr. Pottinger bitterly, "but the carpenters won't go to work unless I scrap the $7,000 worth of trim already on the ground and get some more that has been made in Chicago. I wouldn't be able to obtain that for sixty days at the earliest."

Complain About Cold Flats.

Scores of tenants hurried to the city hall yesterday with complaints about frigid flats.

Assistant Corporation Counsel Leon Hornstein drew up an ordinance providing that not less than 70 degrees of heat be supplied apartments between 6 o'clock in the morning and 10 at night. Department stores and office buildings are scheduled for the same temperature.

Ald. Max Adamowski hopes to have the ordinance passed at a special meeting of the city council within the next two weeks.

Tenants Urged to Fight.

Mr. Trieger says he has no screened porch and no alarm clock. Reference to a conversation between Robert E. Krieger and a reporter is also asserted to be in error. AUTO PLANTS CURTAIL Readjustment taking place in the automobile industry was reflected in temporary closing of the Willys-Overland plant in Toledo yesterday. The plant, laid off 4,500 workers until next Monday, leaving 2,000 employees to continue today and tomorrow. Normally there are between 15,000 and 14,000 employed.

"Rumors that the plant is permanently shut down are incorrect," John N. Willys, president, stated. "We are rearranging our parts department and making some changes in other departments and the plant will resume operations as usual Monday morning. Retail sales have increased beyond expectations since the new prices went into effect."

The Franklin Roller Bearing company laid off 900 of its 1,600 employees at the Columbus, O. plant yesterday and announced that a night shift will not be operated until further notice.

SUGAR AGAIN DROPS

The price of granulated sugar dropped another half cent yesterday to 13 cents, this price being quoted in New York by the Federal Sugar Refining company.

Deputy Commissioner of Public Works Burkhardt is considering an offer from Montgomery Ward & Co. to sell sugar in five, ten, fifteen, twenty and twenty-five pound bags, at the price of three cents below the retail price.

The price of lead was reduced from 8 to 7 1/2 cents a pound by the American Smelting and Refining company. The storm which has been sweeping Lake Michigan for three days has tied up Chicago's fruit fleet. Two of the eight boats are held in Chicago by the storm. The others are lying behind breakwaters at Michigan ports waiting for a chance to sprint to the Municipal pier.

EVICION RIOTS CURTAIN RAISER FORMOVING DAY

New Yorkers Find Trouble Friendly.

New York, Sept. 30.—Disorderly conduct, two arrests for disorderly conduct, the results of a fight following an attempt at forcible removal of twenty families from their homes during a rainstorm today, are belied to be a "curtain raiser" for moving day, Oct. 1.

Estimates have been made that 75,000 families are scheduled to move and there are 2,000 moving vans for the job. Even if wagons of all sorts are used, thousands of families in possession of houses and flats, and unable to find others, will refuse to move.

Some Frustrating Factors.

Moving men said today they had instructed drivers to move no furniture unless they knew there was a place to which it could be moved.

With this evidence of the acute housing shortage, the approach of winter, and the new rent laws forbidding evictions except for cause that will hold in court, charges were made today against building contractors. David Hirschfeld, commissioner of accounts, who just completed an investigation of moving prices and housing conditions, spoke of "prohibitive moving rates."

Make Conspiracy Charges.

In addition, he declared there are combinations of building contractors which decide who shall get contracts, while a building material combine raises the prices of everything that goes into construction of homes.

Arthur J. Hilley, chairman of the mayor's committee on rent profiteering, advised today that families that have failed to find new homes, should refuse to move. They cannot be ousted, he said, unless shown to be undesirable tenants, unless the landlord intends to occupy the apartment or house himself, or unless the building is to be torn down.

Woman Fighting to Win
Millions Sent to Jail

Mrs. Esther Hammill, a niece of Mrs. Margaret Cole, late widow of the W. W. Cole, millionaire circus owner, who is contesting her aunt's will in the Surrogate court of New York, was sentenced yesterday to one year in the House of Correction by Judge Fisher.

Mrs. Helen M. Norton, probation officer of the juvenile court, testified that Mrs. Hammill had contributed to the delinquency of Josephine Lehr, a 16 year old girl. She rented a room to Miss Lehr and an unidentified man when the two appeared at her flat at 1722 North La Salle avenue, Mrs. Norton testified.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

Today's Question.

Should the president pardon Eugene Debs, the Socialist candidate for president?

Where Asked.

Randolph and La Salle streets.

The Answers.

F. B. Schwarzer, Lombard, Ill. lawyer.—Debs was convicted for acts which were unlawful during war times. He is in a sense a political prisoner. The government should act as Lincoln did during the Civil war. After the war all political prisoners were released. Debs should be pardoned because a large number of people will look upon him as a martyr.

Fred L. Litzinger, 2734 West Thirty-ninth street, law clerk.—No, he should not be pardoned. The party he heads and represents has caused too much trouble and has on already for our government. If he were released it would probably mean more trouble, and in the end putting him back in jail.

Anne Carey, 4431 North Spaulding avenue, insurance broker.—Yes, he should let him go. I think he has served enough time, and has been punished too severely. He is an old man, and has not many more years to live, and it seems a shame that he should spend his last days behind prison bars.

Max Blumenfeld, 1235 South Millard, employee of the board of review.—He should be pardoned. Just because his political beliefs differ from ours is no reason why he should be thrust into prison. I do not sponsor the same beliefs that he does, but it is wrong to keep him in prison.

Phillip Sonnenschein, 1916 Evergreen avenue, clerk.—The war is over and he should be given his liberty. He was convicted because of a crime punishable during the war. In former wars political prisoners were released when peace came, and the same thing should be done in the case of Debs.

SCHOOLS SAVE COAL; THOUSANDS OF PUPILS COLD

U. S. Says Fuel Famine
Peril Is Ended.

Thousands of school children in the public schools of Chicago were the principal sufferers from the cold spell which gripped the city yesterday, and hundreds of complaints from parents and teachers were received at the board of education offices. Lack of coal caused Superintendent of Schools Peleg A. Mortenson to issue an order prohibiting heat in the schools and the central office building. The low temperature in some rooms necessitated the dismissing of a number of classes, but no report of a school having to close down entirely was received.

Many homes in all parts of the city were caught without coal to start stoves or heating plants. In many cases this was due to neglect of the householders in failing to order fuel, but in a large number of instances it was caused by inability of dealers to supply the fuel.

From the United States district attorney's office came assurances that despite any present shortage there will be no coal famine in Chicago this winter. Consumers were urged to buy only for immediate need.

Conserving School Coal

"We are having considerable difficulty on account of the sudden change in the temperature," Mr. Mortenson said, "but the shortage of coal necessitated an order prohibiting fires. We are conserving what little coal we can get for colder weather."

"Practically every school in the city called up to see whether they could discontinue, but they were instructed not to do so unless absolutely necessary. I understand that some classes in exposed rooms on the north and west sides of the buildings had to be excused."

The board of education has bought all the coal offered to it, not only the lowest bids but on the highest as well, and we only have a very meager supply on hand. Every day we go without heat means a saving of a thousand tons a day. Beginning Monday the heating of the schools will be discretionary with the principals and the engineers."

Predicts Chiller Coal.

James Arthur Miller, assistant district attorney, in charge of the government investigation of profiteering in soft coal, predicted cheaper coal yesterday. He also said there was no danger of a coal famine.

"If the public will cooperate by waiting thirty days to purchase its winter coal all chances of a shortage will be over," Mr. Miller said. "The coal will be shipped into Chicago by that time to supply every person in the city. If the public will only buy what it needs for immediate use."

"The trouble at the present time is that every one is bidding for soft coal. The coal brokers are taking advantage of the situation to force the prices higher and higher. Indiscriminate buying of coal by individuals, which will be returned against dealers and brokers who profiteer in coal, and heavier shipments will smash prices. One company notified me that they received $6.00 money tons this last month than during the month previous."

Charges Short Weight.

James "Lefty" Lynch, vice president of the Coal Teamsters' union No. 764, who led a strike of his men after District Attorney Clyde had summoned him to the federal building, submitted affidavits yesterday against the Southern Coal company, which has a number of coal yards. Lynch alleged the corporation is short weighing customers by using two systems of weights, one of which is used when inspectors are around and the other when the weighers are not watched. William O'Rourke, president of the company, denied the charges yesterday and declared they were nothing more than an attempt on the part of the union leader to avert the strike against his company.

Drug Habit Wanes in U. S.; Big Slump in Chicago

A marked decrease in the use of habit-forming drugs throughout the United States, and especially in the Chicago district, was announced yesterday by Col. L. G. Nutt, chief of the narcotic division of the internal revenue department at Washington. Col. Nutt arrived here yesterday to investigate local conditions.

"There are less drugs shipped into the United States than ever before," Mr. Nutt said. "This has caused a great increase in the price of narcotics. Morphine in some cases costs as much as $4 a grain. Heroin and opium are proportionately high."

Smuggling morphine into the United States by hiding it in the inner tubes of automobiles is the latest dodge discovered by the government agents.

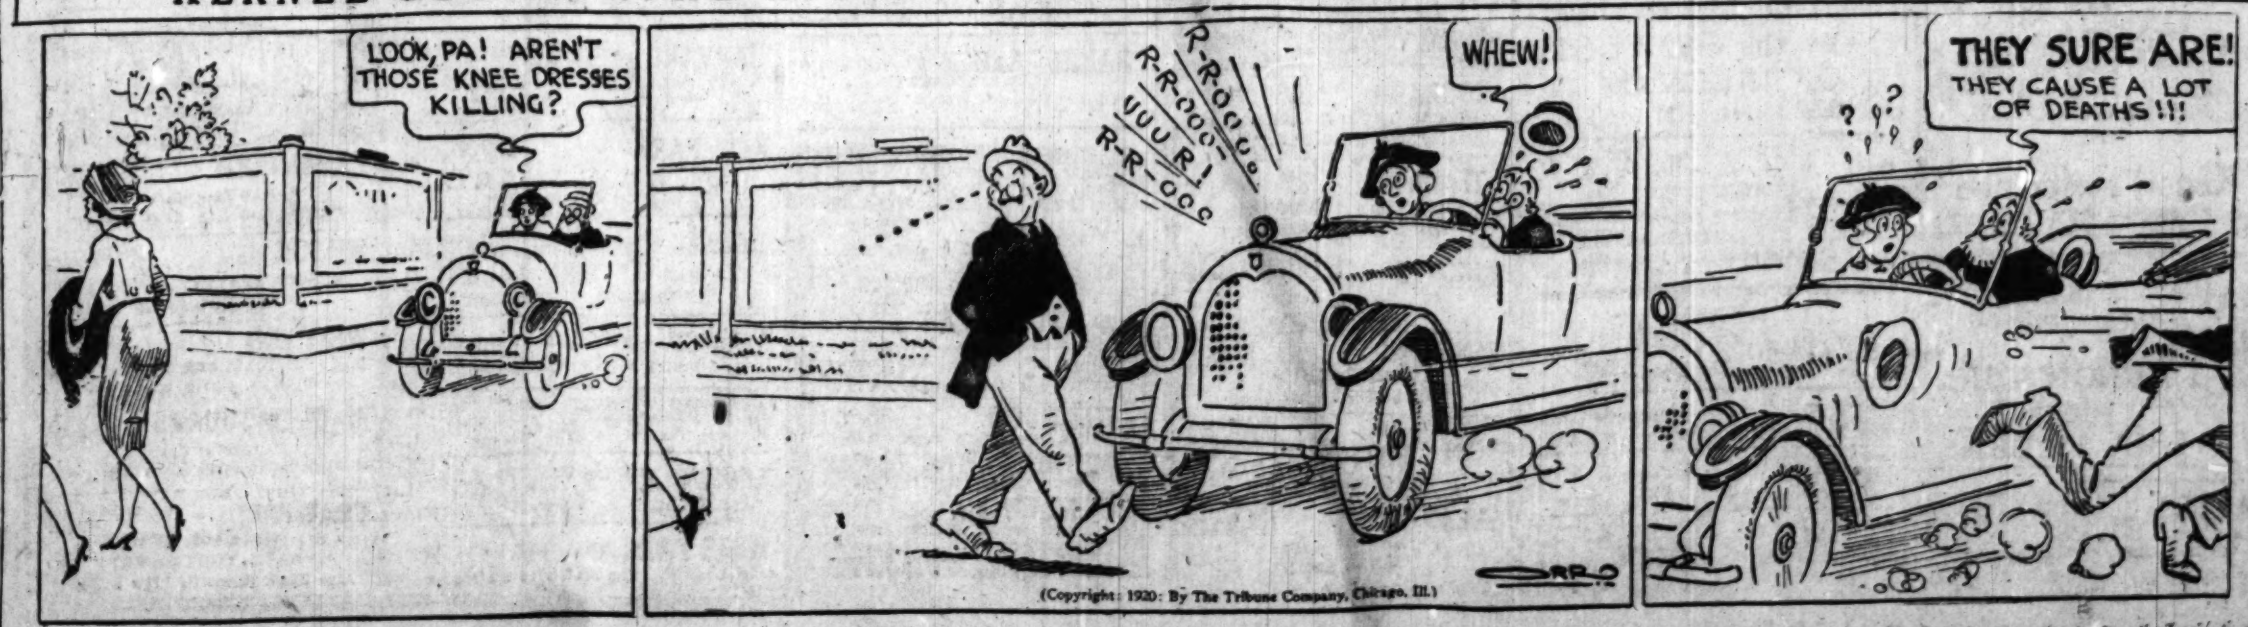

Rich Man's Son Held for Passing Bad Checks Here

Al B. Charlesworth Jr., son of a wealthy dealer in optical supplies in Detroit, Mich., was arrested in Minneapolis yesterday at the request of the Chicago police. Young Charlesworth is charged with having cashed a worthless check for $100 at the Hotel La Salle and another for $50 at the M'Pherson, both hotels, for smaller amounts at other hotels.

Asks $20,000 from Armour; Goes to Insane Asylum

A letter addressed to J. Ogden Armour demanding the speedy payment of $20,000 to James Hill, one time English butler and self-termed "gold digger," resulted yesterday in placing him in the asylum at Dunsmuir. Hill asserted that he had held a position as valet for Arthur Meeker, an official of Armour & Company.

REDUCTIONS

Are not necessary. Why? Because, when prices of other used and rebuilt cars remained the same. Our aim has always been to sell used and rebuilt cars to pave the way for new car sales and not for profit, and the man who buys a used or rebuilt car today pays the same price he paid last year or years before. Reduction on used cars are only necessary where the original sale price was higher than the real value.

Twin Six Rebuilt cars range in price from $3,450 to $4,750.

Other exceptional values in Twin Six cars from $1,400 up.

Come in and look over our stock.
